CAL POLY RESPONSIBILITIES OF DEPARTMENT HEADS/CHAIRS (REVISED DEC 13, 2013)

A great deal of administrative and service work is carried out by department heads and chairs throughout the campus. Departments have varying models of how the responsibilities listed below will be accomplished. Although there are many items listed as the department head’s and chair’s responsibilities, some of these items may be delegated to other faculty and staff depending on the size of the department, organizational structure, support staff and the fraction of the department head’s/chair’s assignment that is dedicated to administrative duties. The college deans will help the department heads and chairs understand the prioritization of these duties in conjunction with the college and department’s vision and goals.

Department Heads are appointed indefinitely while department chairs may serve one or more three year terms. By the nature of these different appointment types, department heads often are longer serving and provide continuity of leadership within their department and college. On the other hand, department chairs provide new leadership, fresh ideas, shorter term action plans, and many more faculty have the opportunity to rotate through this leadership role.

Department heads and chairs may have academic year appointments or 12-month appointments depending on the nature of their duties. If there is a need for a full-time year round department chair, then the 12-month appointment is preferred. Full-time 12-month department heads and chairs accrue 2 days (16 hours) of vacation per month and are required to use vacation for any day that they are not working. Some department heads and chairs have very limited or no summer term assignments. In these cases an academic year appointment is preferable with a fractional or no summer assignment as determined by the appropriate dean. Finally, department heads and chairs may be placed on a split assignment if appropriate. For example they may be placed on a 12-month assignment for their administrative duties at a fractional timebase, and on an academic year assignment for their teaching at the remainder of their timebase (for example 40% administrative assignment 12-months and 60% teaching academic year).
