4. Will the summer ineligibility list be used to determine priority of Summer Term 2017 teaching appointments offered through Extended Education?
   - Yes

5. Retired employees
   - Retired employees cannot be rehired within 180 days of their retirement date. If their retirement date was within the prior 180 days, the retiree cannot be rehired for compensation at any CalPERS covered agency, including self-support (Extended Education).
   - In order for a non-FERPing retiree to be appointed as a 2357 (instructional faculty summer session) in Summer Term, their retirement date must be on or prior to December 24, 2016, regardless of the session in which they are scheduled to teach.
   - Retired employees who are entering FERP or currently participating in FERP cannot be appointed as a rehired annuitant or as a 2357 (instructional faculty summer session).

6. Can a Summer Term course for credit be run through Special Session?
   - No. The only courses offered through Special Session during summer are off-campus and international programs courses and other programs offered only through Special Session such as self-support graduate and certificate programs, Quarter Plus and Early Start.

7. How is the rate per WTU calculated for self-support appointments?
   - The monthly base rate is required to calculate the per WTU rate (the monthly base rate is located on the pay check stub)

Frequently Asked Questions
Summer Term 2017

- 12Mo Temp Fac – divide monthly base rate by 1.15, round, then multiply by 12 months and divide by 45
- 12Mo Ten/TT Dept Chair – delete stipends, divide monthly base rate by 1.15, round, then multiply by 12 months and divide by 36

8. How is the approximate pay for summer term appointments calculated?
   - For Self Support - job code 2357:
     Take the rate per WTU from the calculation performed above then multiply it by the number of WTUs assigned to teach.
   - For State Support - job code 2368:
     The monthly base rate (which is located the pay check stub) is multiplied by 4, then multiplied by the fractional time-base, then divided by 3 to get the actual monthly rate to be paid in 3 payments.

9. Will the anticipated GSIs be applied to Self-Support Summer Term appointments?
   Generally, no. For faculty members who worked for the campus in the prior academic year, the contract provides that salaries in the self-support summer instructional classification 2357 (summer session, self-support) is tied to the prior academic year salary. For that reason, pay for summer 2017 in jobcode 2357 should be based on salaries in effect prior to the application of the GSIs.

10. What about State-Support Summer appointments?
    The GSIs will be effective on 7/1/2017 for faculty members active in in classification 2368 (instructional faculty, extra quarter) as well as faculty members with active summer-quarter appointments as lecturers (classification 2358) as of that date.

11. What will happen to the salary rates for Extended Education faculty classifications for Special Session instruction? (not applicable to 2357-Instructional Faculty Summer Session classification)
    The two affected classifications are 2322 (Instructional faculty, Special Programs – For Credit) and 2323 (Instructional faculty, Extension – For Credit). According to the terms in Article 40, the published minimum salary rates for these two classifications shall increase at a rate consistent with the overall compensation pool increase for Unit 3. At Cal Poly, these published minimum rates are not used as the basis for instructor compensation; rather, the base salary rate in the instructor’s primary faculty position is used as the basis for instructor pay within these jobcodes. The rate per WTU is calculated at 1/45th of the instructor’s annual faculty salary on the last work day of their summer assignment.

12. Who signs the Summer Term appointment letter?
   - Instructional Faculty – Vice Provost for International, Graduate, and Extended Education
   - Teaching Associates – Vice Provost for International, Graduate, and Extended Education
   - Graduate Assistants – College Dean
   - ISAs – ISA101-Summer Form – College Dean
   - Special Consultants – College Dean
   - Non-Teaching State Support (IAF, AT, OSF) – College Dean
13. Why must a course offered through Extended Education be cancelled if minimum enrollment is not achieved prior to the third class meeting?

The costs to offer courses through self-support must be covered by revenue collected from student enrollment. State funds may not be used to subsidize the cost of teaching a course through self-support.

14. What happens if the minimum number of students does not register for a course?

The class will be cancelled no later than the third class meeting. The faculty member will be paid pro-rata for any classes taught. If a course is cancelled prior to beginning of the first class, there will be no compensation.

15. What happens if enrollment drops below the minimum level after the third class meeting?

The course would continue and the faculty member would be paid.

16. If the minimum number of students would support a lower paid faculty member, may the higher paid faculty member agree to be paid at a lower rate?

No. The faculty member's rate of pay has to be honored and cannot be negotiated outside of the faculty collective bargaining agreement.

17. If the minimum number of students would support a lower paid faculty member, may the college dean proceed down the priority list until the cost of an appointment can be made within the break-even point?

Yes, as long as the spirit of the summer agreement eligibility is met.

18. Can a faculty member volunteer to teach a course without compensation?

Yes, however, the faculty member would need to agree to a voluntary appointment by signing a statement to the effect that the volunteer assignment is a personal choice and completely optional:

Example: “I volunteer to teach course XXXX during Summer Term 2017 without compensation.”

19. Can a faculty member voluntarily agree to be paid for one course and volunteer not to be paid for another?

Yes. For the volunteer assignment, the faculty member would need to sign a statement to the effect that it is a personal choice and completely optional:

Example: “I volunteer to teach course XXXX during Summer Term 2017 without compensation.”

20. Can a faculty member volunteer to teach a portion of one course and be paid for the remaining portion?

No.
21. If needed, is it possible for a faculty member to use their accrued sick leave during assignments paid from Extended Education?
