GRADUATE STATUS REPORT

INTRODUCTION

College year 2003-04 proved to be a positive year for newly graduated students to enter the job market. Modest gains in economic conditions have begun to translate into more job opportunities. 92% of Cal Poly graduates were either employed full-time or enrolled in post graduate education. The improving economy has resulted in a 6% increase in employment, with a 4% decrease in post graduate education. The overall data for 2003-04 was based on over 2,200 respondents, a 52% response rate of the entire graduating class.

JOB MARKET

The job market for 2003-04 graduates continues to be competitive. The market began to show signs of improvement in Fall Quarter with an increase of employer participation in the campus interview program and annual job fairs. Industries related to construction, technology, accounting, financial services, consulting, biomedical and defense contributed to an improving job market.

MEDIAN SALARY

The chart below indicates the median salary of each academic college for 2003-04:

College	Sample	Median
All Colleges	1302	$40,000
College of Agriculture	218	$34,000
College of Architecture & Env. Design	143	$40,200
College of Business	367	$41,600
College of Education	54	$38,000
College of Engineering	274	$54,040
College of Liberal Arts	196	$32,000
College of Science & Mathematics	50	$35,500

EMPLOYMENT SOURCES

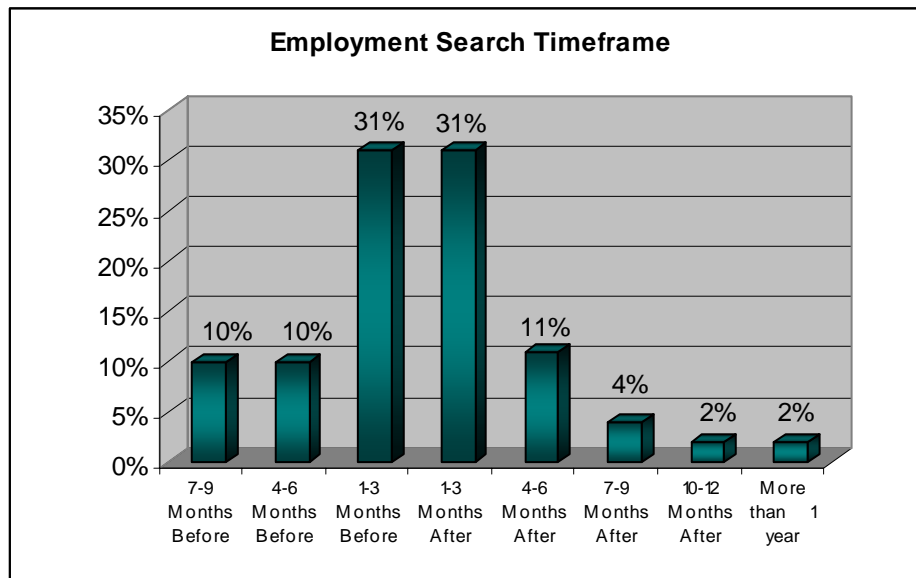

The graduating class used the following methods to secure employment:

Employment Sources	Percent
Personal Referral	32%
Internet Listing	15%
Prior Employment	11%
On-Campus Interview	9%
Campus Event / Job Fair	9%
Career Services Website	7%
Advertised Position	4%
Family Business	3%
Club Activity	3%
Academic Dept Listing/Event	2%
Employment Agency	2%
Telephone Book / Professional Publication	2%
Other	1%

Graduates relied heavily on networking through personal contacts and pre-career employment (summer, Co-op or internship experience), along with the use of technology to obtain employment. Specific Career Services programs related to on-campus recruiting, campus events, job fairs and website (Mustang Jobs) were also widely used by students to make initial contact with employers.

EMPLOYMENT SEARCH TIMEFRAME

51% of respondents obtained employment before graduation, 82% obtaining employment within three months after graduation.

MAJOR RELATED JOBS

91% of respondents reported that their employment or post baccalaureate study was directly or somewhat related to their major. The remaining 9% reporting jobs not related to their major.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

19% of respondents continued on to post baccalaureate study. The majority of respondents in this category are from the College of Science & Mathematics (47%) and College of Liberal Arts (31%).

COLLABORATIVE EFFORT

The Graduate Status Report is a collective effort of the academic colleges, departments, faculty and Career Services staff. This comprehensive report is used by university, community college and high school counselors, employers, admissions officers, academic advisors, advancement officers, and accreditation teams. An online version of the Graduate Status Report can be found at:

www.careerservices.calpoly.edu/Students/CareerPlanning /GSR.htm

A special thank you goes to Mary Milosevic for her work in administering, compiling, and preparing the report.
