Full Stack Developer

Job Summary
The California Cybersecurity Institute is in need of determined, self-motivated student employees looking to work in an exciting and growing environment.

Responsibilities

- Use authoring or scripting languages, content creation tools, and management tools to aid in the design, maintenance, and updating of the website
- Work with marketing team to analyze metrics and constantly improve content
- Work within Cal Poly's Drupal template with a chance to move into designing a website from the ground up
- Test website regularly to ensure an optimal user experience

Required Skills

- Ability to solve various problems and implement new and improved processes
- Experience in communications and/or marketing preferred but not required
- Ability to work with others to produce high quality work
- Advanced programming knowledge
- Flexibility to change direction and manage conflicting demands
- Comfortable in a fast-paced, startup work environment

Technical Skills

- At least one language such as HTML, CSS, C#, Java, etc.
- Adobe Photoshop

Additional Skills

- Adobe Illustrator
- Chrome dev tools
- Drupal
- Wordpress