III. Open issues

a) All clubs must attend another club sport’s game in order to earn a point toward funding.

b) All clubs are encouraged to bring 10-15 of their members to Club Sports Recognition Night on October 21st.

c) Tennis did not attend the meeting, so they are obligated to buy pizza for the next meeting (11/12, 6 PM).

IV. New business

a) Shereen gave a speech about Culturefest, an opportunity for clubs to volunteer for a community event. Culturefest will happen on Saturday, October 17th on Dexter Lawn.

b) Clubs went around and gave updates on their game schedules to provide an opportunity for other clubs to attend their games.
c) Annie Debruynkops went over budget meetings and reviewed the following information: the tier system, Payment Request Forms, E-plans, licensing for apparel (refer to Julia), driving paperwork, coaches packets, and fundraising. Heidi Lee will come to the next meeting (11/12) to discuss fundraising.

d) Natalie: October 21st is Club Sports Recognition Night, all club sports are invited to be recognized at half time at a Men’s Soccer game.

e) Zach discussed alumni outreach, went over why it is important, and gave examples of events that clubs can put on.

f) Club sports easy up is always available for use.

V. Adjournment

Natalie Royle adjourned the meeting at 7:43.
