Congressional Internship Program
Program and Position Description

Program Summary:

The Panetta Institute’s nineteenth annual Congressional Internship Program will be held from August 6 through November 4, 2017. This program combines a rigorous two-week academic orientation at the Panetta Institute along with an experiential education as a Panetta intern in a Washington, D.C. office of a California member of the U.S. House of Representatives. While serving in our nation’s capital the student will also attend regular seminars. Upon completion of all requirements for this course, interns will earn full-time academic units that will be posted to their university transcripts. All program costs are covered, including housing, ground transportation, travel to and from Washington, D.C. and some reimbursement for living expenses. Any academic major may apply; the program is open to qualified students regardless of income.

Course Components:

- Participate in a two-week training session at the Panetta Institute, located at the CSU Monterey Bay campus on the Monterey Peninsula;
- Work full-time for eleven weeks in a Washington, D.C. congressional office for a member of the U.S. House of Representatives;
- Attend special seminars held exclusively for Panetta Institute interns while in Washington, D.C. and submit reports on all classes and seminars;
- Submit a brief weekly report;
- Submit an experiential twenty-page journal and a twenty-page research paper; and
- Receive full-time academic credits upon completion of the internship that are accepted as an integral component of the student’s transcript.

Position Functions and Tasks:

Provide support to congressional office staff that includes, but is not limited to:

- Answer phones
  - Take messages
  - Transfer calls
  - Conference calls
- Enter data
- Draft correspondence or other materials
- Meet and greet constituents
- Provide tours of Capitol Building
- Compile newspaper clippings
- Attend hearings and briefings, take notes and provide summaries/reports
- Conduct issue/legislative research
- Perform other work that involves the practical application of what is learned in the classroom
Position Qualifications:

Education
- Matriculating student in upper-division undergraduate status (matriculating juniors or seniors during the time of the internship – and has not applied for graduation)
- High academic standing at all colleges/universities attended (includes lower division also)
- Congressional Internship Program academic units must be applied to the student’s transcript

Experience
- Outstanding student leader, who is not a former Panetta Institute Congressional Internship Program participant
- Demonstrated commitment to community and public service

Skills
- Advanced written and verbal communication skills (especially clarity of speech)
- General computer proficiency, word processing and spreadsheet knowledge
- Ability to follow instructions carefully
- Flexibility to adjust with poise to changing deadlines and priorities
- Ability to provide information to the public and others as directed by supervisors
- Strong organizational skills
- Ability to multi-task and prioritize assignments
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to be a good team member with an attitude of doing what it takes to get the job done and doing so with a pleasant, cooperative, and professional demeanor

Other qualities
- Exemplary conduct at the home campus university and in the community;
- Positive attitude with a willingness to work (hard) on any project assigned by the congressional office;
- Willingness to accept work involving the practical application of what is learned in the classroom;
- Full-time commitment to the Panetta Institute’s Congressional Internship Program; no extra-curricular or outside courses allowed including, but not limited to, scheduling of LSAT, graduate record exams (GRE), etc;
- Willingness to accept roommate assignments and share living quarters with other students while residing at CSU Monterey Bay and in Washington, D.C.
- U.S. citizen;
- State of California resident;
- All students must have proof of health insurance that is compliant with the Affordable Care Act and that covers the students while residing and working in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area.