ACADEMIC SENATE
of
CALIFORNIA POLYTECHNIC STATE UNIVERSITY
San Luis Obispo, CA

AS-599-03/FAC

RESOLUTION ON BUDGET CRISIS

- 1 WHEREAS, The State of California is in an unprecedented budget crisis; and
3 WHEREAS, The state budget crisis will cause significant reductions in state appropriations to the CSU
4 in 2003-2004 and beyond; and
6 WHEREAS, The budget crisis could seriously affect student access to courses and student services in 7 the CSU; and
8
9 WHEREAS, The budget crisis could seriously affect high quality instruction, jeopardize faculty, and 10 staff positions in the CSU; therefore be it
11
12 RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly (SLO) strongly urge President Baker to continue
13 focusing on protecting funding for high quality instruction and essential student services
14 (e.g., student advising, counseling, financial aid administration); and be it further 15
16 RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly strongly urge President Baker to oppose any 17 increase in the student-faculty ratio (SFR), and be it further
18
19 RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly strongly urge President Baker to consult widely,
20 on issues related to budget and enrollment management with the Academic Senate, all
21 Cal Poly bargaining units, and Cal Poly students; and be it further 22
23 RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly strongly urge President Baker to ensure that there
24 will be continuing transparency and consultation in the budget process so that the campus
25 community can be fully informed; and be it further
26
27 RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly strongly urge President Baker to find and utilize 28 alternative sources of revenue (i.e., Foundation funds), and cost saving strategies (e.g., 29 reduction of expenditure on non-essential operations, CMS, and hiring MPPs); and be it
30 further
31
32 RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate of Cal Poly strongly urge President Baker to reallocate
33 alternative sources of revenue and savings to instruction as a way of reducing the impact
34 of budget cuts on the quality of education.

Subject: Response to Academic Senate Resolution AS-599-03/FAC
Resolution on BUDget Crisis

I hereby accept the above subject resolution and the principles of consultation and support for high quality instruction and student services that it articulates. This resolution both emphasizes strategies that the University has already undertaken to accomplish the goals of the resolution and affirms the importance of communication and engagement in the budget process.
