CALIFORNIA POLYTECHNIC STATE UNIVERSITY
San Luis Obispo, CA
AS-1015-26

RESOLUTION OF COMMENDATION FOR JERUSHA GREENWOOD

- WHEREAS, as a faculty member in Experience Industry Management, Jerusha Greenwood knows that a successful experience requires intention, coordination, and thoughtful attention to the people in the room; and
- WHEREAS, while the University transitioned from quarters to semesters, Jerusha led faculty through an extraordinary period of institutional change with diplomacy and resolve; and
- WHEREAS, during the Cal Poly Maritime integration, she welcomed Maritime colleagues aboard with respect and humility, guiding the Senate through choppy waters of hybrid governance with steadiness and poise; and
- WHEREAS, Hygge, a Danish concept of coziness and togetherness, has been exemplified by Jerusha through her record-setting Senate icebreakers and retreats, sustaining us through our fatigue of initiatives, all with stickered water bottles in hand not to be left behind; and
- WHEREAS, through predictable and unforeseen challenges alike, Jerusha upheld the values of shared governance and collegiality, ensuring that faculty voices remained clearly heard and thoughtfully represented; and
- WHEREAS, Jerusha demonstrated a sustained commitment to elevating and championing student voices through her consistent presence at ASI Board meetings and her thoughtful incorporation of student feedback; and
- WHEREAS, Jerusha exemplified principled and courageous leadership in supporting Cal Poly's undocumented, transgender, and gender-non-conforming communities; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate acknowledge Jerusha Greenwood's leadership as Chair from AY 2023-2026, her enduring contributions to faculty governance, and her defense of higher education, which have strengthened the Senate and the university; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the Academic Senate extends its sincere gratitude and best wishes to Jerusha Greenwood in all her future endeavors.
