Subject: Fall Quarter GE Governance Report

This memo should serve as a brief summary of activity for the General Education Governance Board (GEGB) for Fall Quarter 2013.

- The committee met five (5) times throughout the quarter, on designated Friday mornings;
- Each meeting had a specific agenda of items to be discussed;
- The GEGB welcomed two new members: Emily Fogle and Charlotte Rinaldi;
- The report/memo on GE double-counting strategies was delivered formally to the entire campus at the beginning of Fall;
- Plans were set forth for the beginning of GE Program Review and Self-Study;
- Subcommittees were established to help distill the categories of information that the GEGB would like to address; PLOs, Student Experience, Advising, Quality, Branding, Innovations
- A draft Student Survey was delivered with the hopes of finalizing and distributing at the beginning of Winter Quarter 2014;
- Information was brought back from the WASC conference on Quantitative Reasoning;
- The Provost has agreed to fund/send the entire GEGB to the AAC&U GE Conference in Portland, OR first weekend in March.
