

CAL POLY

Academic Senate Retreat

Welcome!

Please sign in and get your name tag

Sit anywhere you like

Friday 21 August 2026

Welcome

- New or returning senators, thank you!
- Back in 2009 during the Great Recession working on BLRP: / don't know where we are going or how we get there. But we are going there together.
- Dr. Rossman taught me the below
 - Disagree without being disagreeable
 - Ask Good Questions

Dr. Al Liddicoat, Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs

- I first met/worked with Dr. Liddicoat after the Great Recession on budget committees
- Dynamic budget allocation task force
- A familiar and welcome face at ASCSU
- A Cal Pol Alum: Electronic Engineering
- Ph.D. and master's in Electrical Engineering, Stanford
- Master's degrees in industrial engineering and engineering management, Stanford
- Faculty since 2002, tenured professor
- Forbes Professor of Computer and Electrical Engineering

Summer Work Groups

- Faculty participation does not indicate endorsement of YRO
- They have questions and likely share your concerns
- Participation reflects service and a willingness to engage:
 - Calendar
 - Unpacking high-impact practices and work-integrated learning