CHARGES
Charge	Complete?	Status/Notes
Curricular Review. Ongoing	<input type="checkbox"/>	Once again, curriculum review consumed most of our time this quarter. ASCC reviewed approximately 100 course proposals (mostly modality edits) as well as the new and still-in-revision Food Safety Minor
Review and revise existing curricular policy in the context of Q2S conversion (including minors, senior projects, concentrations, and graduate certificates). Ongoing through conversion	<input type="checkbox"/>	In winter, ASCC completed work on the revised Graduate Curriculum policy, and began work on resolutions related to Graduate Certificates, Courses with Compressed Time Schedules, and In-Residence Requirements for Last 40 Units.
Develop coherent policy on minors with regard but limited to size of minors, numbers of upper- and owner-division courses, overlap between majors/minors and minors/minors. Draft resolution for Senate consideration. AY 2022-2023	<input type="checkbox"/>	Planned for meetings during Spring 2023.

Develop Prior Learning Policy in collaboration with Academic Programs and Planning (APP). AY 2022-23	<input type="checkbox"/>	Greg Bohr (ASCC Chair) is serving as the ASCC representative to the work group on Credit for Prior Learning. He and Andrew Morris will continue to serve as a conduit between the work group and the ASCC.
Discuss whether limits on the number of degree-applicable units from co-curricular or learn-by-doing-type courses is appropriate. AY 2022-23	<input type="checkbox"/>	Planned for meetings during Spring 2023.
Review and modify committee procedures and bylaws as needed. Ongoing	<input type="checkbox"/>	Continuing to discuss as needed.

NOTES:

The committee met weekly over Zoom during Winter 2023, on Thursdays from 3:10 – 5:00 pm. Andrew Morris replaced Bruno Giberti this quarter and going forward. The CAED representative position remains vacant.
