CHARGES
Charge	Status/Notes
Work with appropriate groups to develop criteria for GWR expansion and submit a resolution for approval.	Greg Bohr was our representative on the GWR committee, and the ASCC reviewed the proposal that the committee will be submitting.
Discuss double counting courses.	The committee examined data gathered by the Registrar’s Office regarding the number of minor offered and looked at overlap between different majors and minors. A draft resolution has been prepared and is being edited by committee members.
Explore “course renewal” cycle (in tandem with GEGB). Ongoing.	Waiting for prioritization from ITS.
Revise the existing draft of Policy on Blended Programs. Resolution due Fall 2018. Ongoing.	No progress.
Ongoing review of curriculum proposals.	Proposals still needing AS approval can be found at http://registrar.calpoly.edu/status-proposals and at the end of this report. Courses that were examined this quarter (or re-examined after rollback), included a number of e-learning addendums.
Draft a targeted resolution in conjunction with Academic Programs and Planning to discontinue the specified programs without following current policy. Due spring 2018	Approved final draft 3/15/18, will send to Academic Senate Spring quarter 2018.

- 2) CHEM 470/HNRS 470
- 3) Discussed Soc 444 / HNRS 470. This is a 2-unit version of the Incarceration class we reviewed last year.
- 4) Discussed CE208. For Fall recommend just running two concurrent sections, CE 204 and CE 207, and make them compressed. This could have some added benefits for transfer students, such as allowing them to retake the CE 204 exam with other sections.

2/15/18 ASCC Meeting

- 1) Re-reviewed JOUR 403 (reviewed 1/18/18 and rolled back to department for further information)
- 2) Re-reviewed POLS 440 (reviewed 1/18/18 and 2/1/18 and rolled back to department for further information)
- 3) Reviewed Interdisciplinary Studies
- 4) Briefly discussed Resolution on GE Integrity
- 5) Provided feedback on Resolution on Program Review

- 2) LA 406
- 3) NRES 260

Compressed schedule during the quarter when students are taking other classes. Special circumstances led to this solution, primarily personnel issues. The ASCC decided the plan was acceptable for this one offering but discouraged similar compressed schedule offerings during the quarter in the future.

- 4) Additional discussions and edits to the Minors resolution
- 5) Provided input to Greg Bohr on the Resolution on GWR course criteria; he will bring to the GWR committee
- 6) New charge from AS: Draft a targeted resolution in conjunction with Academic Programs and Planning to discontinue the specified programs without following current policy. Due spring 2018. Briefly discussed, asked Academic Programs and Planning to write a draft Resolution to discontinue two programs: BA Liberal Studies and EdD Degree Programs
