Cal Poly 2020
Campus Survey on Sexual Violence

Kara Samaniego (she/hers), Assistant Director of Wellbeing
Kaitlyn Blakey (she/hers), Assistant Director of Equal Opportunity
What are we doing?

Purpose:
The purpose of this survey is to collect information about the frequency, consequences, attitudes towards, and awareness of services regarding sexual violence on the California Polytechnic State University campus.

Content:
The survey includes questions about beliefs and opinions relating to sexual violence, experiences with sexual violence, and knowledge about policies and procedures regarding sexual assault, and is expected to take between 10 and 20 minutes to complete.

Who: ALL current undergraduate and graduate students

Launch Date: February 19
What will we do with the data?

Answers to these questions will help Cal Poly develop policies, inform prevention and intervention tools and improve support systems for students.

- Build accountability
- Identify gaps
- Create a benchmark for future surveys
- Continue our progression towards a more inclusive and safe campus
How can faculty help us?

- Give students time in class to complete the survey
- Talk to students about the survey and why they should take it or invite Safer in to talk about it
- Offer extra credit
- Get creative!
