Distinguished Teaching Awards Committee (2019-2020)

Franklin Gaudi, BioResource and Agricultural Engineering (17 years at Cal Poly) Tenure Track

I am interested in serving on the Teaching Award Committee for a couple of reasons:

1. I would like to network with educators across the campus that are at the top of their profession.
2. I want to learn strategies from the award nominees to improve my own teaching pedagogy at Cal Poly.

These might sound like selfish reasons, but to be good at my job I believe I need to learn from others who are very good at their job. While I have been employed by Cal Poly for more than 17 years, I was also a student prior to that, so my Cal Poly roots are rather deep. I have been teaching in the BRAE department for about 12 years now. I started as a lecturer and I am now in a tenure track position. As I continue down this career path, I want to continue to grow in my teaching ability. I think this committee can help me with that goal.

Pertinent accomplishments include the Excellence in Education Award winner through the Irrigation Association in 2018 as well as being named the Outstanding Lecturer Award winner for CAFES in 2018. While these awards are nice, the greatest recognition comes from the students. The comments that I receive from them each quarter keep me motivated and engaged in my classroom. This is what I hope to gain from the committee, what techniques do other teachers use to inspire their students.

Michael La Frano, Food Science and Nutrition (3 years at Cal Poly) Tenure Track

My interest is primarily due to my motivation to continually improve as an educator. I came to Cal Poly without any experience as an instructor of record for courses at any level. Thus, I have had to work tirelessly at getting better at teaching throughout my 3+ years here. With the help of CTLT activities and viewing of colleague lectures, I have learned a great deal. I believe that I now have a very good sense of what makes a good teacher at this point that I could contribute in the assessment of teachers on this Distinguished Teaching Awards Committee. However, I am also interested in being exposed to more styles of teaching during the process of being on the committee in order to further improve my own techniques.

Distinguished Scholarship Awards Committee

Stacy Kolegraff, Construction Management (9 years at Cal Poly) Tenure Track

Thank you for considering me for service on the Distinguished Scholarship Committee. Looking at the requirements for the scholarship award, it is my understanding that students, faculty, and staff can nominate faculty members who (1) have quality scholarship work; (2) apply that work to serve the students; and (3) apply that work to serve Cal Poly.

As a tenure track professor and current PhD student, I have spent considerable time both researching and analyzing research design. Conducting research and reading what others has done is exciting for me and I approach this work enthusiastically, knowing that what I read may somehow inform or connect to another area of interest. I am the faculty advisor for the Women in Construction club and chair of the CAED Faculty Diversity and Inclusivity Committee. As chair, I work closely with the student Diversity and Inclusivity club and have heard the impact teachers have had, both positively and negatively, on their academic career. Having this perspective, I am empathetic to student needs and want to celebrate the faculty members who have made a positive impact on students and the campus community overall.

I have served in numerous teams, both in academia and industry, and am action oriented, working to get the work done within required timelines while still respecting and gaining input from the collective team. I enjoy working with others and learning about the different types of work being done on campus, and am excited at the prospect of being on a committee that supports research to move our community forward.

Additional info requested by the senate regard Stacy Kolegraff’s scholarly activities:

Thank you for considering me for service on the Distinguished Scholarship Committee. I have been asked to provide some additional background about my scholarly work and, since I am early in my academic career, it is limited. However, I have had some initial success which is documented on my CV, attached. I am also halfway through a PhD program with Indiana State University, and, in that program, learned more about research design and, with that, have analyzed, scrutinized, and researched many different topics.

Additionally, I am interested in joining the committee to gain a grainer perspective of the types of research being conducted across the different disciplines within the university, so I have a holistic understanding of the university’s strengths and capacities. Additionally, being a new tenure track faculty member at the beginning of my research journey, serving on this committee would provide some mentorship on my types of exemplary accomplishments and bodies of achievement to which I could aspire.

Looking at the requirements for the scholarship award, it is my understanding that students, faculty, and staff can nominate faculty members who (1) have quality scholarship work; (2) apply that work to serve the students; and (3) apply that work to serve Cal Poly. I would look forward to reading about the type of work being conducted, and am most excited to see how that work is applied to serve students and others within the campus community.

Brenda Hembrecht, English (15 years at Cal Poly) Tenured

As the previous GEGB chair, I led the GEB through the General Education self-study and program review, 2014-2016. As part of the self-study, I researched course renewal processes at other campuses and discussed this approach with the GEGB. The committee had been in agreement that there should be some process by which GE courses can be revisited by programs offering them.

I collaborated with the GEGB to draw up a statement regarding the importance of course renewal. I wrote the following for the GE self-study:

“Currently, the GEGB does not have a mechanism by which a previously approved GE course is reviewed. Once a course is approved, the proposal is seldom revisited by the proposer, the department, or the GEGB. However, the GEGB recognizes that course content and pedagogical approaches necessarily shift over time and existing courses can fall out of currency.”

I also drafted the proposed renewal process in that appears in the self-study in Section IIA: Programmatic Components and Section IV: Conclusions.

I think course renewal should be a process that helps departments articulate their currency, but that does not create an undue burden for faculty, especially those in GE-heavy programs that consistently propose new courses and engage in GE course development.

Eric Olsen, Industrial Technology and Packaging (16 years at Cal Poly) Tenured

This process has a huge impact on the lives of students, faculty, and administrators. It is at the heart of the value we deliver as a university. I would be willing to help if the taskforce is interested in taking a value driven approach that involves everyone in systematic problem solving and reducing bureaucratic waste. I am interested in seeing a fresh approach to doing task force type work for the Academic Senate.

College of Agriculture, Food & Environmental Sciences

Megan Silcott, Agricultural Education and Communication, CAFES (8 years at Cal Poly) Lecturer

I am a product of the department I’m honored to teach in. I spread out three minors and my degree in Agricultural Science over five years as a student, graduating in 2009. After working for a fertilizer company, I returned for a master’s starting out in Agribusiness and switched to Agricultural Education, completing that degree in 2014.

Students who walk through my office are always encouraged to make the most of their undergrad through research and adding depth to their character through extra curriculars. But I also make a point to pursue minors outside of their “typical” major coursework. It sets them apart in many situations from career readiness to interview conversations.

We’ve (AGED) had several students now, graduate within three years of undergrad, without minors. Those students would have made wonderful double major candidates if they were interested in staying a full four years or an extra quarter. While many factors contribute to a student’s drive to graduate early, pursue multiple minors, or double major, I believe I have first-hand experiences with working through school, loving multiple levels of curriculum, and now a few years into Cal Poly, have advised hundreds of students (I’ve taught our senior projects for the past four years) to do school their way while making an impact and shaping a future they’re passionate about.

My goal on this committee is to share my experiences when warranted and help devise guidelines to service our university through the double major frame of reference

Jean Davidson, Biological Sciences, (2 years at Cal Poly) Tenure Track

My research and teaching interests are in bioinformatics and genomics, topics which are completely intersectional with many different departments and colleges across the campus. I work closely with colleagues in Computer Science, Nutrition and Food Science, Public Health and many others. Therefore, I think a lot about the benefits of combining disparate educational paths to best suit the needs and interests of students. I’ve been a member of a working group establishing a cross-disciplinary bioinformatics minor within the College of Science and Math and am intrigued by this opportunity to continue thinking about combinatorial education programs, including double majors. I think I would add valuable insight due to my broad interests and experiences working between majors currently. I look forward to having thoughtful discussions about what would be most equitable and powerful for our students.

The Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) is a standing Senate committee with representation from each college, the library and professional consultative services, Academic Affairs, and a student representative. FAC employs a streamlined process for Academic Senate approval of personnel policies which specifies the nature of consultation with faculty affected by proposed changes and provides a clear accounting of which policy documents have been superseded by the proposed change. It also allows the Senate Executive Committee to place non-controversial updates to personnel policies on the Senate consent agenda.

In creating UFPP FAC has adopted a guiding principle that, as far as possible, the migration of existing personnel policies from the former governing personnel policies document, University Faculty Personnel Actions (UFPA), into UFPP shall not change those policies as they are in UFPA, but instead just reformulate them into the new style and structure of UFPP. In the initial movement of policies from UFPA to UFPP, a few existing policies in UFPA were inadvertently left out. Also, some of the policy statements warrant editorial revision. Such minor changes in policy statement warrant the use of the Senate personnel policies consent agenda so as to save time in making minor changes to policy statements.

Summary of Proposed Policy Revisions

The requirements for materials to be included in tenure-track and lecturer applications in UFPP chapter 2 do not conform with current recruitment policies. These policy revisions bring UFPP into conformity with existing policy.

Impact on Existing Policy

This revision changes no policies. It conforms the policy statement in UFPP with existing university level recruitment policies already in place.

Implementation

There is no implementation as the policy text revision already conforms with existing policy.

Consultation with Faculty Units

No consultation necessary as this proposed change in policy text makes no changes to recruitment practices and policies across campus.

Proposed Policy Revisions

Summary of Proposed Policy Revisions

The requirements for materials to be included in the Personnel Action File (PAF) for probationary and tenured faculty has long included the Professional Development Plan. This item is restored to the list of items in the PAF.

Impact on Existing Policy

This revision changes no policies. It conforms the policy statement in UFPP with existing university level policies already in place.

Implementation

There is no implementation as the policy text revision already conforms with existing policy.

Consultation with Faculty Units

No consultation necessary as this proposed change in policy text makes no changes to practices and policies across campus.

Summary of Proposed Policy Revisions

The responsibilities of evaluators of faculty for promotion have had a requirement to rank the candidates for promotion they have evaluated. This provision is added back to the lists of responsibilities of Department Peer Review Committees (DPRC), Department Chairs/Heads, College Peer Review Committees, and Administrative Evaluators (such as Deans).

The need for candidates under evaluation to sign AP 109 forms is no longer necessary with the electronic evaluation processes initiated in AY 2018-2019. This policy at 4.2.8 is therefore deleted.

The policy about DPRC composition overstates restrictions on conflict of interest relative to the original statements about it in the UFPA. UFPP 4.3.4 is therefore revised to remove this overstatement.

Impact on Existing Policy

This revision changes no policies. It conforms the policy statement in UFPP with existing university level policies already in place from UFPA.

Implementation

There is no implementation as the policy text revision already conforms with existing policy in UFPA.

Consultation with Faculty Units

No consultation is necessary as this proposed change in policy text makes no changes to practices and policies across campus.

Faculty Affairs Committee, Fall 2019
DELETE THE STRIKETHROUGH TEXT FROM EXISTING UFPP POLICY:

4.2.8 To acknowledge receipt of an AP 109 evaluation report, candidates must sign the report within the specified timeframe of ten days.

4.3.4 Faculty may serve on only one level of review (department PRC, department chair/head, or college PRC). (CBA 15.29) Faculty unit employees being considered for promotion themselves are ineligible for service on promotion or tenure peer review committees (CBA 15.42). A potential DPRC member with a clear conflict of interest with a faculty member scheduled for review (e.g., partner, very close friend or collaborator) should not stand as a candidate for that DPRC. DPRC members typically will be from the candidate’s own department. However, DPRC members will sometimes need to be recruited outside the department when there is an inadequate number of faculty in the department who are eligible and available to serve on the DPRC.

ADD THE UNDERLINED TEXT TO EXISTING UFPP POLICY:

4.3.4 DPRC evaluation recommendations shall be approved by a simple majority of the committee (CBA 15.44). The DPRC shall vote for or against the proposed action (retention, promotion and/or tenure), or, under very rare circumstances, abstain. Abstentions require written explanation. In cases of split votes, the report should reflect the relevant perspectives on the committee and the rationale for the majority decision. In rare instances when agreement cannot be reached on the content of the committee report, the minority committee member(s) may submit a signed minority report. The DPRC shall submit a ranking of those promotion applicants whom they positively recommended.

4.4.5 The department chairs/heads shall submit a ranking of those promotion applicants whom they positively recommended.

4.5.4 The CPRC shall produce an evaluation report for each candidate under review. This report will critically analyze the evidence on each dimension of performance (teaching, scholarship, and service), both favorable and unfavorable, and produce a narrative clarifying how the evidence was weighed and the conclusions and recommended actions derived. In cases of split votes, the report should reflect the relevant perspectives on the committee and the rationale for the majority decision. In rare instances when agreement cannot be reached on the content of the committee report, the minority committee member(s) may submit a signed minority report. The CPRC shall submit a ranking of those promotion applicants whom they positively recommended.

Summary of Proposed Policy Revisions

Two-year retention patterns are used by CSM and CLA. This pattern requires some adjustment for cases of faculty hired with service credit. Colleges already have such alternative patterns in practice. Guidance about where to place such alternative patterns has been requested by college analysts. This policy revision provides this guidance.

Impact on Existing Policy

These revisions change no policies, but clarify how existing permitted choices of retention patterns work for cases of hiring with service credit and indicate where colleges shall place their accounts of such alternate retention patterns.

Implementation

There is no implementation as the revisions express what colleges already do.

Consultation with Faculty Units

No consultation is necessary.

Proposed Policy Revisions

ADD THE UNDERLINED TEXT TO EXISTING UFPP POLICY:

Faculty Affairs Committee, Fall 2019
Choosing the Two-Year Retention Pattern requires establishing comparable patterns for faculty hired with credit towards tenure. All the evaluation patterns defined above are for faculty hired without service credit. These evaluation patterns provide a basis for the formulation of alternatives for faculty hired with service credit. Alternative evaluation patterns for faculty hired with service credit should be included in the Appendices to College level personnel policy documents.

SUBCHAPTER 11.5: ASSOCIATE DEAN APPOINTMENTS

Impact on Existing Policy: This resolution recommends to the President that Cal Poly enact the attached policy as a new university-level policy directing colleges to formulate more detailed policies on associate dean appointments. WHEREAS, Cal Poly has no policies specifically on academic associate dean appointments; therefore be it

RESOLVED: The policy included in the report “Proposal for University Faculty Personnel Policies: SUBCHAPTER 11.5 Associate Dean Appointments” be included in UFPP, and be it further

RESOLVED: Colleges and the Library revise their personnel policy documents by Fall 2020 to include the nature of consultation with faculty and staff in their associate dean appointments and place those policies in chapter 11 (Governance) of their personnel policy documents.

Proposed by: Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee
Date: November 5, 2019

¹ (1) Describe how this resolution impacts existing policy on educational matters that affect the faculty. Examples include curricula, academic personnel policies, and academic standards.
(2) Indicate if this resolution supersedes or rescinds current resolutions.
(3) If there is no impact on existing policy, please indicate NONE.
Proposal for University Faculty Personnel Policies:
SUBCHAPTER 11.5 Associate Dean Appointments

The Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) is a standing Senate committee with representation from each college, the library and professional consultative services, Academic Affairs, and a student representative. FAC employs a streamlined process for Academic Senate approval of personnel policies which specifies the nature of consultation with faculty affected by proposed changes and provides a clear accounting of which policy documents have been superseded by the proposed change. FAC has used this process to construct a new University Faculty Personnel Policies (UFPP) document and is now employing the same process to revise or create new personnel policies and place them in UFPP on an as-needed basis.

FAC recommends Cal Poly adopt a policy requiring colleges to develop and implement a consultative process with faculty and staff for associate dean appointments. FAC has solicited feedback on this proposed policy from the colleges, library, and counseling services, and will take that feedback into account as this proposed policy advances through the Senate process.

What follows is a summary of the proposed policy, an account of its impact on existing policy, and implementation.

This policy would go into effect by means of shared governance with the Academic Senate recommending to the President that the attached policy be adopted. As it affects appointments by means of the Management Personnel Program (MPP), which is outside the scope of faculty policy, the Senate’s action is advisory to the President. The President may choose to implement the policy the Senate recommends, and if so, the attached policy would enter UFPP by that endorsement from the President.

Summary of SUBCHAPTER 11.5 Associate Dean Appointments

This proposed policy requires colleges and the library to utilize some sort of consultative process with faculty and staff in the appointment of associate deans. It also requires colleges and the library to specify the nature of this consultative process in their respective personnel policy documents.

Impact on Existing Policy

Associate dean appointments are governed by CSU policy and state law about the Management Personnel Program (MPP). This new policy would establish a further requirement of some sort of consultative process with faculty and staff, to be defined by the colleges, in the appointment of associate deans. This is a policy about policy in that it requires colleges and the library to formulate such policy for their own application. It makes no further specification about how such college and library policies shall be formulated, but leaves that to the colleges and library to sort out for themselves.

The Academic Senate previously approved a resolution on MPP search processes (AS-659-07 - Resolution on Searches for Academic Campus Administrators). The resolution primarily addressed recruitment for MPP positions involving search processes rather than appointment of associate deans.

Faculty Affairs Committee, Fall 2019
Proposal for University Faculty Personnel Policies:
SUBCHAPTER 11.5 Associate Dean Appointments

from within the current faculty. This resolution was advisory, and President Baker acknowledged it as such.

Implementation

This policy would go into effect upon ratification by the President with a very near-term timeline for the colleges to formulate their policies about all subsequent associate dean positions, at the longest by Fall of the next academic year.

What follows is the proposed new policy, as a subchapter of UFPP Chapter 11: Governance...
11.5. Associate Dean Appointments

11.5.1. [CITATION OF FOUNDATIONAL SENATE ACTION]

11.5.2. Appointment of associate deans is governed by the MPP (Management Personnel Program) policies of the CSU and state law.

11.5.3. The appointment of associate deans in the colleges or library shall involve a consultative process with faculty and staff.

11.5.4. Colleges and the library shall specify in their personnel policy documents the nature of the consultation with faculty and staff for standard appointments of associate deans.

Proposed Office Hour Policy
Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee

Al Liddicoat, Vice Provost of Academic Affairs and Personnel aliddico@calpoly.edu

Office hour policy until 1980:

...each faculty member must schedule and conduct at least one office hour each day (Monday through Friday) for consultation with students...

Current University Office Hour policy (circa 1980):

In addition to scheduled classes, each full-time faculty member must schedule and conduct at least five (5) office hours each week (not more than two hours each day) for consultation with students. The faculty members will post their office hours outside their office doors. This section does not preclude pre-arranged appointments with students. Part-time faculty and full-time faculty with reduced teaching loads will have office hours proportional to their assignments. (CAM 370)

Issues with existing policy:

- Formulated prior to proliferation of email and other online communication
- Formulated when faculty taught more classes (4-5 per term) than now (2-4 per term)
- Vague about scaling office hours to teaching load
- No guidance for department chair/head office hours
- No provision for office hours for advising functions
- Primitive office hour posting policy

Summary of proposed new office hour policy:

- Faculty with a full teaching load required to hold minimum of four office hours
- Clear criteria for scaling office hours to instructional load:

- One office hour may be synchronous online when holding more than one office hour
- Mode of office hours congruent with mode of teaching
- Requirements for posting of office hours
- Colleges include office hour policies in their personnel policy documents
- Colleges may assign office hours to advising functions
- Colleges determine office hours for department chairs/heads
- Colleges approve department level office hour policies
- Colleges may approve ad hoc exceptions
- Guidance for colleges to propose revisions to the university policy
Proposed Subchapter of University Faculty Personnel Policies Document:
SUBCHAPTER 12.2: Office Hours

The Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) is a standing Senate committee with representation from each college, the library and professional consultative services, Academic Affairs, and a student representative. FAC employs a streamlined process for Academic Senate approval of personnel policies which specifies the nature of consultation with faculty affected by proposed changes and provides a clear accounting of which policy documents have been superseded by the proposed change. FAC has used this process to construct a new University Faculty Personnel Policies (UFPP) document and is now employing the same process to revise or create new personnel policies and place them in UFPP on an as-needed basis.

In Spring 2016 FAC recommended to the Academic Senate Executive Committee that a task force be formed to draft a new university office hour policy. In Spring 2018 the office hour task force concluded its work by proposing to the Academic Senate a resolution on office hour policies. The Academic Senate voted against that resolution. FAC agreed to take on the task of drafting a new office hour policy during AY 2018-19 for inclusion in UFPP. This proposed new office hour policy underwent extensive consultative review in Spring and Fall 2019, including meetings with the following groups:

- ASI Board of Directors
- Associate Deans Council
- Provost’s Leadership Council

College deans distributed draft policy text to their department chairs and heads and to interested faculty. FAC received a great deal of feedback from all these affected parties and significantly revised the policy into the form now proposed for Senate consideration.

The rest of this document addresses all the aspects of a personnel policy revision that the FAC requires of itself when it proposes such changes to the Senate:

- Summary of the proposed policy
- Account of impact on existing policy, including the existing policy text
- How the policy would be implemented
- The text of the new policy

Summary of subchapter 12.2: Office Hours

The proposed office hour policy comprises a subchapter of UFPP Chapter 12: Workload.

The proposed office hour policy includes a statement of the contribution office hours make to the educational mission of Cal Poly. It defines what an office hour is, specifies minimum office hours for instructional faculty, and scales office hours to instructional assignments. It requires colleges to define their own more specific office hour policies and to publish them in their personnel policy documents. The policy allows for additional required scheduled office hours to be connected to various advising functions, provides guidance about how to coordinate the mode of office hours with the mode of instruction, and covers the notification of the scheduling of office hours and of changes or cancellation.

Faculty Affairs Committee, Fall 2019
Proposed Subchapter of University Faculty Personnel Policies Document:
SUBCHAPTER 12.2: Office Hours

of office hours. The policy also provides provisions for granting ad hoc exceptions and for considering the role of exceptions in shaping further revisions to office hour policies.

Impact on Existing Policy

Subchapter 12.2 supersedes any and all other existing university, college, and department office hour policies that are inconsistent with the proposed university policy. Any subordinate policy consistent with the minimal provisions of the new office hour policy may remain in effect until that faculty unit decides to revise it.

The Collective Bargaining Agreement includes among the professional responsibilities of faculty “maintaining office hours, and/or opportunities for student consultation connected to online teaching” (CBA 20.1b). Further policy about office hours exists at the campus level.

The current university office hour policy at Cal Poly superseded a prior and rather simple office hour policy that “...each faculty member must schedule and conduct at least one office hour each day (Monday through Friday) for consultation with students...” Campus Administrative Manual (CAM) section 370.2. In 1980 the Academic Senate revised CAM 370.2 into the current office hour policy:

“In addition to scheduled classes, each full-time faculty member must schedule and conduct at least five (5) office hours each week (not more than two hours each day) for consultation with students. The faculty members will post their office hours outside their office doors. This section does not preclude pre-arranged appointments with students. Part-time faculty and full-time faculty with reduced teaching loads will have office hours proportional to their assignments.”

CAM is no longer the governing policy document at Cal Poly. Much of CAM has been revised into provisions of Campus Administrative Policies (CAP) or distributed to a variety of other repositories of policy around campus. The provisions on faculty workload are not in CAP but instead are on the Academic Personnel website, which summarizes the office hour policy on its Working Conditions webpage as follows:

“Full-time faculty members conduct at least five office hours each week for student consultation. Part-time and full-time faculty with reduced teaching loads schedule office hours in proportion to their assignments.”

This statement is located here:

https://academic-personnel.calpoly.edu/content/handbook/workingconditions

Some colleges and departments include the university office hour policy in their policy documents. For instance, The Architecture Department includes the following in its list of faculty responsibilities: “[m]aintain a minimum of 5 scheduled office hours per week in a designated faculty office.”

This statement about office hours is located here:

Faculty Affairs Committee, Fall 2019
The current university office hour policy predates the proliferation of online communication by many years. Online communication has relieved some of the need for in-person contact in office hours. The Academic Senate offers this interpretation of office hours in its remarks on the university office hour policy on its FAQ webpage after quoting the original CAM office hour policy:

“Can office hours be held online? Many faculty will spend time responding to students email outside of office hours. The University required office hours must be scheduled so students will have access to faculty at specific scheduled times either at a scheduled location or to be held virtually at the scheduled time.”

This Academic Senate statement about office hours is located here:

https://academicsenate.calpoly.edu/content/faq-office-hours

The CLA policy on office hours, distributed annually to its faculty by email, explicitly includes online communication as a basis for reducing the total number of scheduled office hours:

“OFFICE HOURS: Pursuant to university policy (CAM 370.2), all Cal Poly faculty are expected to conduct at least five office hours each week for student consultation. For faculty with reduced teaching schedules and part time faculty, the five hours are reduced in proportion thereof with no less than one face-to-face office hour per week. Faculty have the option of offering 4 hours per week of face-to-face office hours plus 1 hour per week of alternative, but demonstrable, contact with students, such as email or other on-line communication. No prior approval is required, but the format of the alternative hour should be stated in the faculty information about office hours that is given to students, and the contact method must be demonstrable should it ever be necessary to do so. Faculty still have the option of holding 5 hours per week of face-to-face office hours. For full-time faculty, the 4-5 hours of face-to-face office hours must be spread over at least three days. In accordance with this policy, faculty do have a responsibility to respond to student emails, even if it is to let students know about regularly scheduled office hours and ways to schedule an alternate appointment.” (CLA Faculty Information Memo 9/13/2018)

Implementation

The new office hour policy would go into effect no sooner than the term following its enactment by the Academic Senate and ratification by the President. The Academic Senate may propose a later date for enactment, but that should not be later than the following Fall term after ratification by the President.

Colleges need to formulate office hour policies. Any college with formulated and published office hour policies must consider whether their office hour policies are inconsistent with the new university policy. Any inconsistency with university policy must be resolved in their new office hour policy.

College level office hour policies would be in Chapter 12 of the college personnel policy documents,

Faculty Affairs Committee, Fall 2019
Proposed Subchapter of University Faculty Personnel Policies Document:
SUBCHAPTER 12.2: Office Hours

and would be subject to approval the same way that any personnel policy is approved as per UFPP 1.5.5 and 1.5.6.

Current subordinate office hour policies that are roughly in line with the long-standing university policy from CAM 370.2 (such as those in ARCH and CLA) may remain consistent with the new office hour policy. For instance, the subordinate policy from ARCH quoted above requiring five office hours for all faculty would be consistent with a university policy requiring a minimum of less than five because the university policy does not specify a maximum. The subordinate policy from CLA quoted above would also be consistent with the new university policy in its allowance of online modes of office hours even in cases where one’s entire instructional assignment is in normal classroom settings, since it also requires at least as many in-person office hours as the university requires.

What follows is the proposed text of subchapter 12.2...
12.2. Office Hours

12.2.1. [CITATION OF FOUNDATIONAL SENATE ACTION] This policy supersedes the previous university policy on office hours originally in CAM 370.2.

12.2.2. Cal Poly’s Educational Mission: “Cal Poly is committed to excellence in teaching and learning. In all disciplines, we seek to provide a student-centered, learner-focused education, facilitated by a low student-teacher ratio in classes conducted primarily by full-time, regular faculty. The cornerstone of our educational philosophy is our commitment to Learn by Doing whereby classroom instruction is complemented by practical, hands-on learning in the laboratory, the studio, and the field.” (Cal Poly Catalog)

12.2.3. One-on-one, direct, personal engagement between students and their instructors and faculty advisors in regularly scheduled office hours is a vital means of contributing to the student-centered mission of Cal Poly.

12.2.4. Asynchronous communication (e.g. email) with students and ad hoc appointments to meet with students are expected normal instructional duties distinct from scheduled office hours.

12.2.5. An office hour is one credit hour (i.e. 50 minutes) of regularly scheduled time for faculty to be available to meet in a regularly scheduled location.

12.2.6. Faculty with instructional assignments shall hold scheduled office hours scaled to their instructional assignments. Scheduled office hours should be held during the days and times when classes are normally scheduled, distributed across days and at times suited to the needs of students. During final exam week office hours may be rescheduled as necessary, and should be suited to the needs of the students served in the instructional assignment.

12.2.7. Colleges that assign duties warranting the holding of office hours shall include office hour policies in their personnel policies documents.

12.2.8. Scheduled instructional office hours

12.2.8.1. Minimum weekly office hour scheduling shall be scaled to instructional assignments as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Instructional WTU</th>
<th>Lecturer</th>
<th>Tenure-Line</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0 up to and including 4</td>
<td>1 office hour</td>
<td>2 office hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&gt;4 up to and including 8</td>
<td>2 office hours</td>
<td>3 office hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&gt;8 up to and including 12</td>
<td>3 office hours</td>
<td>4 office hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>&gt;12</td>
<td>4 office hours</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

12.2.8.2. Faculty receiving assigned time for teaching large format classes shall schedule office hours according to the total WTU for the instructional assignment and assigned time related to that course.

12.2.8.3. If colleges or departments have any further provisions about the scheduling of office hours, those provisions shall be defined in their personnel policy document.

12.2.9. Scheduled advising office hours

12.2.9.1. Assigned time for advising duties may have an amount of office hours defined as part of the advising function. Any advising office hours attached to assigned time shall be determined by the instructional unit that issues the assigned time and specified in the assignment. Office hours for advising duties earning assigned time contribute to the total office hour obligation of the faculty member. 12.2.9.2. Department chair and head responsibilities shall include the requirements for the scheduling of advising office hours required for their assignment. Colleges shall determine the minimum office hours required for department chairs and heads.

12.2.10. Mode of office hours

12.2.10.1. Scheduled office hours should be congruent with the mode of engagement with students for the instructional or advising function that requires the scheduling of the office hours. 12.2.10.2. For normal classroom instruction, scheduled office hours should be held in-person in the faculty member’s office. Faculty with more than one scheduled office hour may hold up to one office hour conducted in a synchronous online mode suited to the nature of the engagement with the affected students. 12.2.10.3. For online courses, scheduled office hours should be conducted in a synchronous online mode suited to the nature of the engagement with the enrolled students. 12.2.10.4. Hybrid courses may warrant an appropriate combination of in-person and synchronous online office hours. 12.2.10.5. Colleges and departments shall specify in their office hour policies any general allowances or requirements for alternate locations or synchronous online modes of conducting office hours.

12.2.11. Notification

12.2.11.1. Office hours shall be posted by the beginning of the second week of instruction in faculty listings on department websites. Colleges and instructional units can determine additional ways for posting office hours that conspicuously and conveniently inform the university community of when and where office hours shall be conducted, such as common boards at department offices, on placards near faculty offices, or other online directories. 12.2.11.2. If the university adopts a standard online directory generally accessible to the university community that is capable of presenting faculty schedules, then office hours should be posted in such an online directory. 12.2.11.3. Faculty should notify enrolled students and department administrators and administrative support staff of any need to cancel office hours in a timely manner appropriate to the needs of the students served by those office hours.

12.2.12. Exceptions

12.2.12.1. Exceptions to the policies about the scheduling of instructional and advising office hours should coordinate the needs of the instructor and the students given the nature of the instructional or advising assignment. 12.2.12.2. Exceptions require department chair/head and college dean approval.
12.2.12.3. Exceptions should be temporary and specific.
12.2.12.4. Exceptions that extend beyond a specific instructor’s temporary needs should be treated as a basis for revisiting the college or department office hour policies.
12.2.12.5. Colleges and departments with standing needs that deviate from university policy should treat those needs as a basis for asking the Academic Senate Faculty Affairs Committee to revisit university level office hour policies.

Subject: Academic Calendar 2021-2022

Dustin:

The ASIC met yesterday and discussed the feedback from the colleges and others. The majority of the feedback favored these choices:

- Summer: Option 1
- Fall: Option 2
- Winter: no consensus, most feedback expressed no preference
- Spring: Option 1

We discussed the relative advantages of the various plans, and decided that the reasons these options were chosen were sound. We understand that a Monday start may present challenges for WOW week, but weighed that against having the first day of class on a day when many students, and perhaps faculty, would be absent. In the end, we voted 3-2 to recommend the four options above. Note that we had no preference for winter.

Sincerely,

John

Subject: 2021-2022 Academic Calendar Proposals and Consultation

In accordance with Campus Administrative Policy 211 (http://policy.calpoly.edu/cap/200/cap210.htm), the Provost, or his/her designee, proposes a calendar to the President for approval, following consultation with various campus constituencies including the Academic Deans’ Council, Academic Senate Executive Committee, Academic Senate Instruction Committee, ASI, Academic Personnel, Human Resources, Cal Poly Corporation, and Student Affairs.

Currently, Cal Poly is operating on an approved Academic Calendar extending through the end of Spring Quarter 2021. Attached are quarter-by-quarter calendar proposals for the period from Summer Quarter 2021 through Spring Quarter 2022. For each quarter’s proposal:

- Applicable Campus Administrative Policy (CAP) is cited.
- The various options and corresponding considerations are presented in a table format.
- Calendar displays with relevant months are provided for each option. Key dates are highlighted, such as final examination periods and academic holidays.

Ultimately, the calendar for the entire year will be a combination of the selected proposals for each quarter. Note there are three options for the Fall 2021 quarter; the first day of classes in Option #1 falls on Thursday, September 16, 2021, which is Yom Kippur. Also note that a new option has been added for the Spring quarter, with final exams concluding on a Thursday and commencement ceremonies starting on Friday.

By copy of this letter we are requesting recipients, except for the Academic Senate Chair and the Academic Senate Instruction Committee, to seek input from their respective organizations. After receiving and assessing input, the recipients should send any comments and/or recommendations on the proposed options, to Susan Olivas, Office of the Registrar (solivas@calpoly.edu) on or before Monday, October 7, 2019.

After the collected feedback is provided to the Academic Senate Instruction Committee for review, the Academic Senate Executive Committee is requested to make their recommendation on or before Friday, November 8, 2019.

If you have any questions regarding development of the calendar, please contact Susan Olivas at ext. 6-2533.

The College of Architecture and Environmental Design recommends Option 2 for Fall Quarter 2021. This would start classes on a Monday and allow for no classes during Thanksgiving week, such that all weeks of teaching are intact Monday through Friday.

We recommend Option 1 for Spring Quarter 2022, with the last day of classes on a Friday so that courses meeting on Friday can be taught over the full 10 week quarter.

We have no preference for the day in Winter Quarter 2022 that is used to restore a Monday class schedule. January 17 or February 21 work equally well for us.

CENG prefers option 2 for Fall 2021. We do not wish to start on Yom Kippur, and prefer no classes during thanksgiving week. For winter 2022 we prefer option 1b and for spring 2022 we prefer option 1.

Good morning,

After gathering feedback from several programs, the College of Engineering supports Option 2 for Fall and therefore Option 1 for the Spring. Either Winter Option work well.

One bit of feedback, Saturday Common finals are a challenge for students since there is minimal DRC support and little to no time for students to study. Something to consider in future considerations.

Thanks,

Eric

The following options have been proposed for the Fall 2021 term:

- Classes start on Thursday with no classes during Thanksgiving week (note that Yom Kippur falls on the first day of classes)
- Classes start on Monday with no classes during Thanksgiving week
- Classes start on Monday with classes meeting on Monday and Tuesday of Thanksgiving week

A couple of options have been presented for Winter 2022 to address the occurrence of two Monday holidays in the term.

A new option has been introduced and added for Spring term, which would allow commencement ceremonies to occur over three days, Friday through Sunday.

See the attached memo for further details. We look forward to receiving your comments by Monday, October 7.

Questions may be directed to Susan Olivas in the Office of the Registrar (ext. 6-2533 or solivas@calpoly.edu).

Thank you,

Dear Susan,
I have spoken to faculty and chairs about the proposed options. There is a strong feeling in my college that starting classes on Yom Kippur day sends a terrible message as the university tries to improve in the area of diversity and inclusion. In terms of options 2 and 3, I wouldn’t say there’s a clear majority preference for one or the other. I hope this helps. Best.

Hi Al,

Summer 2021 – no issues with proposed Option 1
Fall 2021 – our preference would be Option 2. Usually, we prefer earlier starts to accommodate the high volume of appointment processing. However Option 1 that starts the earliest, falls on Yom Kippur, 9/9/2021. Option 2 starts on 9/13, which is workable, not too close to payroll cut-off. Also, it works best with the preferred Spring Option 1.
Winter 2022 – no issues with proposed Option 1a or 1b – I did have to check previous calendars for the New Year’s holiday. It looks like it will be observed 12/31/21.
Spring 2022 – our preference is Option 1. It follows the typical Spring calendar ending on a Friday with commencement on Sat and Sun. Option 2 the quarter would end the following Monday 6/13/22, not a processing problem per se, just problematic in that there may be confusion and questions related to working/attendance requirements for Monday 6/13.

Let me know if you have questions.

Thanks,
Chris

Do either of you have any input to share with the Registrar for the 2021-22 Academic Calendar? The Fall option 2 seems to create two work days without instruction which seems to be a filler to hit the target number of work days. Is this OK Chris?

Good morning Susan,

Thank you for allowing Administration and Finance the opportunity to review and provide feedback on the academic schedules for academic year 2021-2022. Below is our compiled feedback:

Fall – Option 2 – In light of the University’s mission toward greater diversity and inclusion, beginning class on Yom Kippur does not seem to be appropriate. This would alienate a population of the campus community from day one.

Winter – Option 1B – It is extremely helpful for our facilities staff to have Monday through Wednesday to complete small projects, while the students are away. The week-long break in the academic schedule also helps Public Safety.

Spring – Option 1

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Jen

Good afternoon all,

Student Affairs submitted a suggestion as part of our formal response to push the academic calendar back one week in September, so that the first day of classes does not take place on Yom Kippur, thereby alleviating placing our Jewish students, faculty and staff in challenging positions on such a critical day. Classes would begin on September 23 and Commencement would take place on December 18 in our proposal. I wanted to make you all aware of this, should you wish to comment on that suggestion in your formal response.

Thank you,
Keith
