November 30, 2020

Welcome to the FINAL week of Fall Quarter 2020! We have lots of exciting things going on and we want to keep you informed of what is happening in the Agricultural Education and Communication Department!

Winter Course Planning:
- AGC 270: Digital Communications in Agriculture will be offered winter quarter. This course will upgrade your digital communication skills as you apply them to agricultural topics. 4-unit course meeting online MW 2:10-4:00pm. Course may substitute for one of the following: GRC 377, JOUR 390, ENGL 310 or COMS 301. Contact Dr. Mike at mmike@calpoly.edu for more information or to acquire a permission number to enroll.

- AGC 470: Communicating Agricultural Science to Public Audiences will be offered winter quarter. Interested in creating compelling digital multimedia projects to tell amazing stories? Want your work published on a national platform? 4-unit course meeting online MW 10:10-12:00pm. Course may substitute for one of the following: GRC 377, JOUR 390, COMS 301, or AG/ASCI 360. Contact Dr. Cannon at kcanno01@calpoly.edu for more information or to acquire a permission number to enroll.

Tres Estrellas Organic Farm and Garden in Tecate, Mexico: Interested in learning about ecological farming, farm-to-table operation and self-reliance? Hands-on winter course in Mexico from January 23 – March 6. See attached flyer for more information.

AgriCorps Fellowship Opportunity: Building on the work of five classes of AgriCorps Fellows, AgriCorps is partnering with the Borlaug Institute to support the IAEFP and continue our mission of advancing school-based agriculture education in Ghana. The IAEFP will recruit, train and support nine Fellows to become agriculture teachers and 4-H advisors during the 2021-22 Ghanaian school year. Recruitment is now taking place for our 2021-2022 school year! Head over to IAEFP website to find out more. Applications are due February 1!