

SEEKING MASTER'S STUDENT

Potential Start Dates:

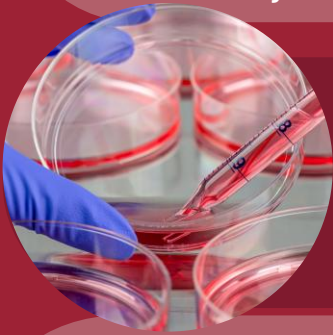

Spring, Summer, or Fall 2027

Research of Interest: How early life experiences impact muscle growth and metabolism and fresh meat quality; improving poor muscle growth and meat quality outcomes caused by intrauterine growth restriction

Graduate Student Perks

- Competitive annual salary
- Tuition covered! (Student is responsible for fees)
- Multiple funded research projects starting Spring 2027
- Research, Teaching, and Extension opportunities

QUESTIONS? INTERESTED?

Contact Dr. Zena Herrera at zherrera@uark.edu

University of Arkansas

Our picturesque campus located in Fayetteville, is considered among the country's finest college towns, and the surrounding Northwest Arkansas region is regularly ranked one of the best places to live in the U.S.
Students - 33,610

Department of Animal Science

ANSC Website

Undergraduates - 351
Graduate students - 24
Faculty - 26
Research Abattoir, Cookery Lab, GCMS, Display Lab

Zena Herrera, Ph.D.

Dept. of Animal Science

Research - Exploring how early life experiences impact muscle growth, metabolism, and meat quality.

Teaching - Meat Science,
Muscle Growth and Development

Education

- B.S. Arkansas
- M.S. Texas A&M
- Ph.D. Nebraska

