Who are we?
We are:
A small and growing Structural Engineering firm that is committed to serving others and is:

- Dedicated to client satisfaction
- Located in Visalia CA, gateway to Sequoia National Park
- Offering a job with the opportunity to design in a wide variety of projects and building materials
- Invested in our community, and make sure to partner with non-profits to give of our time and resources
- Looking for a full time EIT who desires a competitive wage

Who are you?
You are:
A soon to be graduate who is excited to begin their new career and is:

- Self-motivated
- Energetic
- Able to communicate well within a team
- Willing to make site visits to make observations and measure field conditions
- Accepting of mentoring and continual training
- Desiring an open office environment
- Ready to launch your career and begin your journey to becoming a Structural Design Engineer

If this sounds like the place you would like to be, please email:

Lorraine Randolph, Business Manager
Lorraine.randolph@zeltmacher.com

Not sure yet? Please visit our website and have a look around

www.zeltmacher.com