If approved, the Art minor will be effective the following quarter.

COURSE SUBSTITUTIONS

To request a course substitution, meet with your Art & Design faculty minor advisor and provide a description of the course that you want to use as a substitution. If the advisor approves, they will write the course substitutions on the bottom portion of the Art Minor application (original or copy), sign, and date it. Submit the updated application to the department office (bldg. 34, room 169). Monitor your Degree Progress Report (DPR) to make sure the course sub has successfully been processed by Cal Poly's Evaluations office.

REGISTRATION

A helpful tool to use when planning what ART classes to register for is the department's current Tentative Course Offerings list because it shows which quarters each ART class is typically offered.

Art minors are not guaranteed a seat in ART classes. If possible, get on the waitlist for the ART class you wish to take. Each quarter, the department office emails Art minors an optional survey, where they can submit a request for a permission number for an ART class. Permission numbers are not guaranteed.
