

How to Use Assist to view course transferability

1. On Assist.org, select the current academic year.
2. Under “Institution” select your college.
3. Under “Agreements with Other Institutions” select Cal Poly – San Luis Obispo then click “View Agreements”.
4. In the menu under “View Agreement by:” select “Major” then scroll down in the list of majors to find either Bioresource and Agricultural Engineering (BRAE) or Agricultural Systems Management (ASM).
5. Click on the name of the major, then click “View Agreement (PDF)” or “Download Agreement” to view the course transferability agreement.
6. Courses from your institution will be on the right side of the page and the Cal Poly equivalent course will be listed on the left side of the page.
