

Bee Sweet Citrus Internship Opportunity

Location: Central Coast, California

Starting wage: $15/hour

Hours: flexible; can work around class schedule

Class level: Seniors preferred, but will consider juniors

Resume review date: December 1, 2018

Description:

Bee Sweet Citrus is looking for hard-working, resourceful Cal Poly student interns for their expanding Central Coast citrus operations. Students of diverse academic backgrounds will be considered.

Internship responsibilities may center around, but are not limited to: farming operations, managing farm employees, irrigation systems, pest management, fertilization programs, preparing reports, new lemon planting, lemon harvesting, and lemon estimating.

Successful interns may be considered for a full-time management position upon graduation.

To apply:

Interested students should submit a single PDF file of their cover letter and resume to cafes@calpoly.edu. Please save your file as "LastName_FirstName" and include "Bee Sweet Intern" in the subject line of your email.

About Bee Sweet Citrus:

Bee Sweet Citrus was founded in 1987 as an independent packer and shipper of California oranges. Bee Sweet has grown to become a prominent leader in California's citrus industry.

A successful year-round operation, Bee Sweet ships throughout the United States, Canada, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and several Pacific Rim countries including Japan. Citrus varieties include: Navel, Valencia, Cara Cara and blood oranges; Meyer and conventional lemons; Star Ruby and Melo Gold grapefruits; Satsuma, Clementine, Page and Murcott mandarins – and exotic specialties like Minneola tangelos, pummelos, and gold nugget mandarins.

