IRRIGATION MANAGER POSITION

The Irrigation Manager is responsible for supervising the irrigation department and all the operations and personnel associated with irrigation and water management. The Irrigation Manager will be part of a vineyard management team dedicated to producing quality winegrapes on a large-scale setting. The Irrigation Manager must be self-motivated and possess good communication skills.

Compensation/Salary:

DOE

Requirements:

- Bachelor’s degree in Agriculture Engineering or a related field highly preferred
- 2-3 years managing a large-scale irrigation system preferred
- Valid driver's license and clean MVR
- Bilingual is a plus

Responsibilities & Duties:

- Communicate with Irrigation supervisor, Irrigators, Canal Tenders for proper execution of irrigation needs.
- Coordinate with Vineyard Manager on irrigation scheduling
- Manage all irrigation and pumping data for proper reporting
- Develop and execute all Irrigation schedule programs
- Oversee and maintain all irrigation infrastructure
- Responsible for irrigation of field teams
- Execute all fertilization and other chemical injections
- Reports daily, weekly, quarterly, and annual activity to proper managers
- Responsible for learning and implementing new irrigation management technology and practices
- Overseer irrigation development projects
- Responsible and accountable for departmental capital and operations budget
- Coordinate with other departments to execute programs
- Adhere to, instruct/train and implement all safety requirements, regulations, and initiatives to the team.
- Other projects as deemed necessary by Management

Physical Demands

- Able to independently lift objects not to exceed 50 lbs on a regular basis.
- Able to sit, stand, bend and walk for long periods of time.
- Ability to work extended hours during the day and work on weekends as needed.
- Able to drive and operate farm equipment such as tractors, loaders, & backhoes as needed.

Submit resume to: elias@montereypacific.com