DESCRIPTION AND APPLICATION FORM 2021-2022

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

Monday – May 3, 2021 @ 4:00pm

Email to Marnie Perry: mperry11@calpoly.edu
ASSISTANTSHIP DESCRIPTION:

The Harold G. Hull Graduate Assistantships in Agriculture were established in 1988 to provide research support for selected agriculture graduate students. The objective of the assistantship is to foster a student/faculty mentoring relationship that enhances a student's ability to perform scientific research. The funds establishing the endowment were bequeathed to the University by the estate of the late Dorothy M. Hull.

The assistantships are $2,000 for the year. The distribution of funds to awardees is at the discretion of the committee chair (e.g. every quarter, all at once, etc.). The committee chair will act as the advisor and collaborator in support of the awardee's research/project effort.

THE FOLLOWING ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA SHALL BE OBSERVED:

1. Graduate students pursuing an MS in CAFES with a thesis or project as a culminating experience are eligible.
2. Students are expected to work on a research or development project at least 10 hours/week for up to 12 months.
3. The committee chair and the recipient shall, in collaboration, identify the tasks to be accomplished and the time frame for completion of the duties.
4. A recipient must be ENROLLED in the disbursement term(s) to receive scholarship funds.
5. A thesis or project document shall serve as the final report.
6. Prior award recipients should submit a progress report on work completed since the previous award.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:
A. Select a CAFES faculty member to serve as thesis or project committee chair.
B. Complete the attached Hull Graduate Assistantship Application.
C. Return the application packet, to Marnie Perry via email, mperry11@calpoly.edu by 4:00 p.m. on Monday – May 3, 2021.
