Julie Garcia Named Interim Associate Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion

Julie A. Garcia has been serving as interim associate vice president for diversity and inclusion for the Office of University Diversity and Inclusion (OUDI) since June 29. Garcia, who has served as associate chair for the Psychology and Child Development Department since 2014, has been involved in diversity and inclusion work throughout her 11 years at Cal Poly. In her role as AVP, Garcia will lead the BEACoN mentoring program, the Collective Impact initiative, and help with strategic planning around campuswide diversity and inclusion efforts.

Cal Poly Honored at California State University Technology Awards

Photo of the award that Cal Poly/AWS received at CSU Technology Awards. The Digital Transformation Hub (DxHub), part of the university's Information Technology Services division, won the Collaborating Across Boundaries Award at the CSU's 2018 Tech Awards. The silver award was given in recognition of Cal Poly's launch of the DxHub with Amazon Web Services (AWS) in fall 2017. The DxHub is dedicated to developing solutions to civic problems through technology while providing hands-on learning experiences for students. The DxHub innovation team is comprised of Cal Poly and AWS employees and employs student interns and researchers.

University Housing to Host Information Sessions About the yak?itvutvu Residential Community

You're invited to attend an information session about the yak?itvutvu (means "our community") residential community. Learn about building designs and features, customs and cultures of the Northern Chumash, and how to effectively and thoughtfully communicate building and complex names. More than two years ago, Cal Poly formed a historic partnership with the Northern Chumash, the Indigenous peoples of San Luis Obispo County. Opening this fall, yak?itvutvu will house 1,475 first-year students in seven residence halls located at the Grand Avenue entrance of campus. Each residence hall is named after yak titvu yak titvini Northern Chumash villages throughout the Central Coast. RSVP to attend one of the following information sessions:

- Tuesday, Aug. 21, 2–3:15 p.m. (general session).
- Friday, Aug. 24, 10–11:30 a.m. (marketing and communications).
- Monday, Aug. 27, 2–3:15 p.m. (general session).

All sessions will be held in the Baker Center for Science and Mathematics (No. 180), Room 114. For more information, contact Julia Bluff ext. 6-1584 or email jbluff@calpoly.edu.

Welcome New Mustangs at Fall Move-in Sept. 14-16

University Housing invites all faculty and staff to volunteer to help new and returning students move into the residence halls during Mustang Move-in, Sept. 14-16. This is a fun way to be one of the first to welcome students and their supporters to campus. As a volunteer, you may do the following:

- Welcome new students and their supporters.
- Provide directions and answer questions.
- Help unload cars and move belongings.
- Collect rolling carts.
- Coordinate student volunteers (leads only).

Departments are welcome to coordinate teams. All volunteers will receive a meal voucher and a Mustang Welcome T-shirt. Go to <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080d44aca928a0ff2-september> to learn more and sign up.

yak?itʉtʉ Open House set for Sept. 4

Faculty, staff and students are invited to an afternoon open house to preview the yak?itʉtʉ housing community on Sept. 4. Guided tours of buildings will be offered from 4 to 6 p.m. Light refreshments will be served. Named in honor of the Indigenous peoples of San Luis Obispo County, the Northern Chumash, yak?itʉtʉ features seven buildings that collectively house 1,475 first-year students. Located at the Grand Avenue entrance to campus, the LEED-designed community includes a roof-mounted 1.1 megawatt solar system, a campus welcome center, open space with native plants, study and community rooms, laundry facilities, office and workspace, among other amenities. To learn more about yak?itʉtʉ, visit www.housing.calpoly.edu/yt.

Career Services Accepting Donations of Professional Clothing

Career Services will host its fourth Clothing Closet event on Sept. 27 to provide free, work-appropriate clothes to students in need. The event also marks the grand opening of Career Services' permanent clothing closet. Faculty and staff are asked to consider donating dry-cleaned, gently-used, contemporary professional clothing. For more details on appropriate donations, go to <https://careerservices.calpoly.edu/explore-services/trending/professional-clothing-closet>. Donations can be dropped off at Career Services (No. 124) through Sept. 14. Metered and 30-minute staff parking is available nearby. Questions? Call Career Services at ext. 6-2501.

Information Technology Services to Host Third Annual Blood Drive on Aug. 28

Sign up now for the blood drive taking place on Tuesday, Aug. 28, hosted by Information Technology Services (ITS). A United Blood Services bus will be on Dexter Lawn from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 28, and will prioritize scheduled donations over walk-ups, so be sure to sign up early. The event is the only one of its kind on campus during summer, coming just in time to alleviate a seasonal dip in donations. Donors are encouraged to eat a hearty breakfast before donating. For more information, contact Mary Padilla at mpadilla@calpoly.edu. Sign up at <https://www.bloodhero.com/index.cfm?group=op&expand=765980&zc=93410>.

Recreation Center Reminds Users of Upcoming Rate Adjustment

It's been six years since the opening of the expanded Cal Poly Recreation Center following a student referendum for a remodeled facility with additional recreational space. Students voted in 2008 to increase their own student fees to allow for the expansion and renovation of today's Recreation Center. Not only did the building grow in size, but so did ASI's commitment to providing a welcoming and inclusive fitness and wellness locale for participants to recreate, relax and socialize. Since then, the facility has recorded over 7 million entries, and participants have experienced numerous amenities, social and recreational programs, and health and wellness benefits. In order to operate and maintain the cutting-edge Recreation Center and ensure member rates are consistent with the student University Union Fee, a rate adjustment for non-students will go into effect on Sept. 1 as follows:

— Faculty/Staff/Administration/Auxiliary/Employees/Non-Enrolled Students: $45.

— Alumni, Emeritus, Household, Affiliates: $50.

For more information or to purchase a membership, visit http://www.asi.calpoly.edu/recreation_center/membership or contact Membership Services at ext. 6-1366 or memberships@asi.calpoly.edu.

Retirements

Dawn Annoni, ASI assistant coordinator of orientation and recruitment, will retire at the end of the month after 30 years with ASI and 35 years at Cal Poly. Annoni started as a receptionist and has held many positions with ASI including secretary of facilities and operations, office manager, and human resources technician. Her contributions to ASI and to the thousands of students and staff members over the years will be missed. ASI wishes Annoni the best as she embarks on her next adventure! A retirement reception will be held in her honor from 2 to 4 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 21, at the Smith Alumni and Conference Center (No. 28).

Dave Ross will retire from Cal Poly this month after more than 19 years. Ross joined Information Technology Services (ITS) in June 1999 and has supported campus customers in multiple capacities over the years. Ross directed teams during the campus migration from the Student Information System (SIS) to PeopleSoft and worked on the launch of the Cal Poly portal, data warehouse, and identity management systems. He also led efforts to deploy the ITS billing system successfully. A passionate tennis player and world traveler, Ross has been an integral part in Cal Poly achieving its teaching and learning mission and will be missed by his colleagues and customers alike. At Ross' request, no retirement celebration will be held.
