Host Holiday Reception in PAC Lobby on Dec. 7

President Armstrong and his wife, Sharon, will host a holiday reception for faculty and staff from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 7, in the Rossi Grand Lobby of the Performing Arts Center's Christopher Cohan Center. In partnership with nonprofit Jack's Helping Hand, guests are invited to bring a donation of a new, unwrapped toy or gift card that will be distributed to children in the community. Spouses and partners are welcome. Questions? Contact the Office of the President at ext. 6-6000.

Help the PAC Support Residents in Need This Holiday Season

Consider donating non-perishable food items to the San Luis Obispo County Food Bank, and help feed the hungry in our community. The Performing Arts Center has two donation bins located in the Main Lobby. Over 46,000 San Luis Obispo County residents are food insecure, meaning one in six face hunger. Approximately 40 percent are children and 20 percent are seniors. The SLO County Food Bank distributed nearly 6 million pounds of food last year.

Retirements

Mariann Van Pelt is retiring from Cal Poly Corporation (CPC) on Dec. 15 after nearly 20 years of service. Van Pelt joined CPC in 1998 as an accounting supervisor followed by various roles including the accounting manager for Campus Dining for six years. Most recently, she served as senior accounting manager for more than two years, overseeing all accounting records for CPC. Throughout her career, Van Pelt has influenced, facilitated or led various business process improvements, campus administrative policy developments and IT systems projects. She has made a significant impact during her tenure. Her retirement plans include spending time with grandchildren as well as RV road trips with her husband. Colleagues are welcome to stop by the Corporation Building (No. 15), Room 116, to wish Van Pelt well in her retirement.
