Celebrate Cal Poly and Giving with Poly Gives Feb. 13

Thursday, Feb. 13 marks the fourth annual Poly Gives, a campuswide day celebrating the university's donors, faculty and staff, and their special impact on the student experience at Cal Poly. The week leading up to giving day, students will learn how to engage in philanthropy through community service and will participate in campus appreciation events that acknowledge the faculty, staff and donors who make a difference in their lives. Annual Giving invites the campus community to join in Poly Gives on Feb. 13 by making a gift to an area of campus they care about, stopping by UU 220 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. for fun and freebies, or sharing a message of what they love about Cal Poly on social media with the hashtag #PolyGives. You can also encourage friends and family to support student programs and clubs, as well as colleges and departments, at polygives.calpoly.edu.

Angela Davis to be Keynote Speaker at 18th Annual Change the Status Quo Social Justice Leadership Conference

The Center for Service in Action will host the 18th annual Change the Status Quo (CSQ) Social Justice Leadership Conference on Saturday, Feb. 29. The conference aims to empower students to use the Learn by Doing spirit to challenge social norms, ask critical questions, demand solutions and make lasting social change. Through guest speakers, inspiring workshops and engaging sessions, students will leave the conference with a newfound sense and understanding of social justice, and how they can take ownership of their role to advance social change. This year's keynote speaker is world-renowned political and social activist, scholar, author, educator, and National Women's Hall of Fame honoree Angela Davis. Pre-registration for the all-day conference is now live at serviceinaction.calpoly.edu/CSQ. Early bird conference fees are only $10 for students and $30 for faculty, staff and community members. Fees include breakfast, lunch and a tote bag with conference materials. Those interested in underwriting the cost of their students to attend should contact the Center for Service in Action by email at serviceinaction@calpoly.edu.

Nominations Open for Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award

Nominations opened Feb. 10 for the Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award, which recognizes a faculty member who has had a positive influence on students through academic advising. The award recipient will receive a $2,000 cash stipend and be recognized by President Armstrong at Fall Conference in addition to having his/her picture and award citation posted in the Kennedy Library. One faculty member will be recognized annually. Faculty, staff and current students are eligible to nominate faculty for this award. At least one submission must come from a current student, and no self-nominations will be recognized. Nominations will close on Monday, March 2. ### Cal Poly Launches New Mobile App

The new Cal Poly mobile app launched this week for Apple and Android devices. Just in time for spring quarter registration, students can now more easily register for classes, check their schedules, and view their account balance from their smartphones. Other helpful features of the app include maps, campus safety resources, and the ability to register for fitness classes at the Cal Poly Recreation Center. The Cal Poly app is available for download from the App Store and Google Play.

Cal Poly Police to Hold Walkie Talkie Thursdays Starting Feb. 20

Join Cal Poly Police Chief George Hughes for a new event: Walkie Talkie Thursdays. On the third Thursday of each month, get outside, and walk and talk with campus community members in a casual atmosphere to discuss issues, ask questions, and learn about each other. Participants can meet in the University Union at 11 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 20, for a 30-minute walk. No speeches or specific topics are planned, just informal conversations about what matters to you. These events are part of the Cal Poly Police Department's goal of advancing the practice of community policing by building relationships between police officers and community members one walk at a time. No RSVP is required. Future Walkie Talkie Thursdays will be held March 19, April 16, and May 21 (locations to be announced).

Own a Home Within Walking Distance of Campus

For the first time in more than 10 years, four beautifully-appointed homes are available for purchase at Bella Montana. These thoughtfully designed homes come with personal courtyards, patios and decks, contemporary kitchens, elegant living areas, attractive baths and energy-saving appliances. Surrounded by beautiful coastal foothills, Bella Montana is located in San Luis Obispo. The homes are part of a 5.3-acre planned housing community that was designed and crafted with Cal Poly employees and their families in mind. Located within walking distance of campus, shops and restaurants, Bella Montana encompasses 69 individually owned homes on Highland Drive near Highway 1.
