Campus Dining Supports Students Through the One Million Acts of Good Movement

On Thursday, March 1, Campus Dining, in cooperation with The Ellen DeGeneres Show and Cheerios, will participate in the One Million Acts of Good movement and create 300 boxes of healthy meals. A partnership between Cheerios and The Ellen DeGeneres Show, One Million Acts of Good is a national movement aimed at inspiring kind acts and encouraging good deeds. Cal Poly was one of only 50 universities selected in the nation to participate in the campaign. From 11 a.m. to noon on March 1, students, faculty and staff are encouraged to come by the University Union and show support as students build 300 MATTERboxes to be delivered to Cal Poly students who are experiencing food insecurity. The MATTERboxes will be packed with healthy snacks as well as nutrition education materials and YOU MATTER notes. The campus community is invited to cheer on the team and share their enthusiasm on social media using #OneMillionActsOfGood and #CalPolyDoesGood.

The He{a}rd Seeks Students for Focus Groups

Do you know students with great ideas and insightful opinions? Tell them to join the He{a}rd! The He{a}rd is a Student Affairs program that seeks to discover what matters most to students and understand their diverse viewpoints. Through a series of focus groups and in-depth surveys, the program provides a platform for students to discuss meaningful topics and decisions that impact their lives and the campus community. Students will be compensated for their participation with gift cards to campus dining and the Cal Poly store. Learn more at <https://studentaffairs.calpoly.edu/theheard>.

Academic Senate Seeking Faculty Member to Serve on Corporation Board

The Academic Senate is seeking nominations from tenured faculty to serve on the Cal Poly Corporation board of directors for the 2018-21 term. Interested faculty should complete an Expression of Intent and Willingness to Serve form and return it to the Academic Senate by Friday, March 9. Questions? Call ext. 6-1258. Find the form at <https://academicsenate.calpoly.edu/content/documents>.

Nominate a Faculty Advisor for Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award

The Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award recognizes a faculty member who has had a positive influence on students through academic advising. The award recipient will receive a $2,000 cash stipend and be recognized by President Armstrong at Fall Conference in addition to having his or her picture and award citation posted in Kennedy Library. One faculty member is recognized annually. Note that the nomination should describe the nominee's academic advising services, activities and interactions as distinct from the nominee's teaching responsibilities, as well as include any special activities that relate to student development. Faculty, staff and current students are eligible to nominate faculty for this award. However, at least one letter must come from a current student, and no self-nominations will be recognized. Nomination information and a link to the nomination form can be found at <http://advising.calpoly.edu/content/nominate-faculty-advisor>. The deadline for all submissions is 5 p.m. Friday, March 16. Questions? Contact Shelly Wolf at ext. 6-5709 or scwolf@calpoly.edu.
