University Strategic Plan Open Forum Set for Oct. 25 at Berg Gallery

The university is still accepting input and the campus community is encouraged to visit <http://strategicplanning.calpoly.edu/> to learn more about the process, the foundation planning documents, and most importantly, to view the draft of the plan (in brief and extended versions). Keep in mind that the strategic priority and goal levels, which are the most finished, are what most deserve your attention. The lower levels of the plan, the potential initiatives and tactics, as well as the potential measures of success, are less finished and are presented more as illustrations of how goals might be achieved than as specific university commitments. Working groups will be formed and continue to develop these aspects of the plan during the 2018-19 academic year, after the final plan is completed and adopted by the university. Share feedback online or an open forum from 11:10 a.m. to noon Thursday, Oct. 25, at the Berg Gallery (No. 5, Room 105).

Chicanx/Latinx Faculty Staff Group to Host Oct. 11 Fall Convocation

The Chicane/Latinx Faculty Staff Association will hold its 11th annual Fall Convocation from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 11, in Chumash Auditorium. This fall welcome — made possible by CLFSA, Career Services Diversity Support Fund, Office of University Diversity and Inclusion and the Multicultural Center — helps connect Latinx-identified faculty, staff and students. It is open to all students, faculty and staff. To add your name to the email list for future notifications about meetings and events, contact Debra Valencia-Laver at dvalenc@calpoly.edu. For more information, visit <https://clfsa.calpoly.edu/>.

Registration Open for Annual Mark S. Reuling Volleyball Tournament

Join ASI Recreational Sports and Campus Health & Wellbeing for the 21st annual Mark S. Reuling Volleyball Tournament on Friday, Oct. 19, at the Recreation Center. Pam and Ed Reuling, parents of Cal Poly alumnus Mark Reuling, created a memorial endowment to honor their son who lost his life to bipolar disorder. Each year, the tournament aims to raise funds for the Reuling Memorial Endowment and to promote education and prevention programs regarding bipolar disorder and depression for the Cal Poly community. Students, faculty, staff and campus community members are eligible to participate including alumni, retirees/emeriti and partners/dependents of current employees. The tournament has two divisions: a faculty/staff division held indoors in the Recreation Center's Rec Gym from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.; and a student division held at the Recreation Center sand volleyball courts from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Registration costs $60 for each six-person faculty/staff team and $40 for each four-person student team. All participants will receive an event T-shirt. One team member can register and pay for the entire team through <https://access.asi.calpoly.edu/>. For more information, contact Greg Avakian, ASI recreational sports director, at ext. 6-5846 or gavakian@calpoly.edu. The tournament caps off ASI Student Government's Buck the Stigma Mental Health Awareness Week that starts on Monday, Oct. 15, and will include daily events to educate and eliminate stigmas involving mental health disorders.

Caution Advocated During Election Season

With the 2018 election season in full swing, university legal counsel encourages employees to review the CSU handbook on election issues at <https://www.calstate.edu/gc/Docs/ElectionIssues.pdf>. The handbook will educate faculty and staff on appropriate ways to become involved in elections without using university resources or appearing to represent the university, unless authorized by law. It is intended as general guidance only. Specific questions related to elections or political activity can be directed to the appropriate dean's office or supervisor, who will consult with the Office of University Counsel.

Don't Miss Oct. 10 Information Security Forum on Password Protection

You're invited to join Information Technology Services in UU Room 220 on Wednesday, Oct. 10, from 11 a.m. to noon for the ITS quarterly Information Security Forum. Learn how to keep your passwords safe and demo LastPass, a password management tool available to faculty and staff. ITS Information Security Team members will be on hand to answer questions and help attendees get set up with Last Pass and Duo, an identity verification tool that is required to be used alongside LastPass. For questions, contact Doug Lomsdalen at 756-7686 or dlomsdal@calpoly.edu.

Nominations Due Oct. 31 for Distinguished Scholarship Award

The Distinguished Scholarship Award recognizes the scholarship, research and creative activity of both junior and senior faculty members across all disciplines at Cal Poly. Faculty are encouraged to nominate their fellow faculty members for this award as well as notify their students about it. See the Distinguished Scholarship Award website for more information at <http://academicsenate.calpoly.edu/content/dsa>. Nominations are due by Wednesday, Oct. 31. For more information, contact the Academic Senate Office at ext. 6-1258, or academic-senate@calpoly.edu.

Catastrophic Leave

Those wishing to donate leave credits to help him remain in full-pay status during an extended leave of absence should contact catastrophic leave coordinator Laura McCarren at ext. 6-5212 or lmccarre@calpoly.edu to request a donation form.

In Memoriam

Alex G. Spanos, Cal Poly alumnus and a major supporter and philanthropist for the university and, more recently, longtime owner of the National Football League's Los Angeles Chargers, died Oct. 9. He was 95. He studied aeronautical engineering in 1941-42. Spanos was a member of the men's swimming team and the Men's Glee Club and band during his time on campus. Since then Spanos, and his wife, Faye, made significant contributions to the university: In 2003, the couple donated $1.5 million to help remodel the Cal Poly Theatre — now named the Alex and Faye Spanos Theatre. And a year later, his $8 million donation to renovate the university's football stadium is one of the most significant gifts in the history of Cal Poly Athletics. After being rededicated in his honor in 2006, the stadium bears his name and hosts many of Cal Poly's most high-profile annual events, including football and soccer games, spring commencement ceremonies and the rodeo during Open House. Alex Spanos married his wife, Faye, in 1948, raised four children — Dean, Dea, Alexis and Michael — and became prolific philanthropists, donating to causes related to schools, children, the arts and hospitals. He was preceded in death by Faye, who died in August at the age of 92.
