

Employment

State Employment Opportunities

For an official vacancies list of staff and management vacancies, visit www.calpolyjobs.org. To apply, go online and complete the application form. For assistance, call Human Resources at ext. 6-2236.

#105057 - Director of Data Management (Administrator II), President's Office - Data Management. Salary commensurate with background and experience of the individual selected. Open until filled. Review begins Thursday, Nov. 8.

#105040 - Assistant Director Facility Operations (Administrator II), Administration and Finance - Facilities Services. Salary commensurate with background and experience of the individual selected. Open until filled. Review begins Wednesday, Nov. 7.

#105045 - Laborer, Administration and Finance - Facilities. $2,798-$4,901 per month. (Anticipated hiring range: $2,798-$3,800 per month). Open until filled.

#105047 - Light Automotive Equipment Operator, Administration and Finance - Facilities. $3,093 - $5,433 per month. (Anticipated hiring range: $3,093-$4,700 per month). Open until filled.

#105056 - Custodian, Administration and Finance - Facilities. $2,600-$4,074 per month. (Anticipated hiring range: $2,600-$3,000 per month). Open until filled.

#105042 - Director of Development (Administrator II), College of Agriculture, Food and Environmental Sciences. $3,726-$13,150 per month. (Anticipated hiring range: $5,000-$7,084 per month). Open until filled. Review begins Thursday, Nov. 8.

Participate in the Great Shake Out on Oct. 18

Cal Poly's Department of Emergency Management will be participating in the Great Shake Out on Thursday, Oct. 18, which will start at 10:18 that morning. The drill is designed to teach survival and recovery tactics in the event of a major earthquake. DEM will test the Poly Alert text and email systems, as well as the campuswide Big Voice (public address) speaker system during the drill. Everyone who is signed up for Poly Alerts will receive a text about the drill, and trial announcements will be heard from campus loud speakers. Participation in the drill will help students, faculty and staff be ready for disasters that may impact campus. For more information on procedures and how to get involved in the Great Shake Out, contact Anthony Knight, director of emergency management, at dem@calpoly.edu or at ext. 6-6658. The Great Shake Out website will also provide more information about the event at <https://www.shakeout.org/california/>.

Cal Poly Police Seeks Votes by Oct. 31 to Win a New K-9 SUV

Cal Poly Police K-9 Officer Chad Reiley and his K-9 Brisant need the help of the campus community in their quest to win a new sports utility vehicle for the campus police department. Vested Interest in K-9s, a nonprofit that provides bullet and stab protective vests and other assistance to dogs of law enforcement, is sponsoring the contest, which runs through 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 31. The K-9 team with the most votes will win a new Chevrolet Tahoe PPV (police pursuit vehicle). Brisant is one of two K-9 units on campus. To help Reiley and Brisant, participants are urged to vote each day at <https://www.vik9s.org/suvgiveaway/> through the end of the month.

Admissions Office Has Moved to Yak?it?ut?u

The Admissions Office has officially moved! The new location is on the second floor of the new residential community yak?it?ut?u building (No. 172-H). Questions? Email Liz Sprouse at esprouse@calpoly.edu.

Faculty-Staff Mixer at Myron's Features Taco Thursday on Oct. 18.

Myron's, Cal Poly's bistro-style restaurant, will host Taco Thursday from 4 to 6 p.m. Oct. 18. The menu for this first mixer of the 2018-19 academic year includes grilled fish tacos and carnitas tacos with avocado mousse, mango pineapple salsa, cabbage, micro cilantro and queso fresco, along with black bean and avocado enchiladas with roja sauce and lime cream. Sides will include classic chips, salsa and guacamole, as well as a jicama salad with chipotle and honey vinaigrette. A delicious tres leche cake will be served for dessert. Two glasses of beer or wine will also be included, all for only $5. Myron's is upstairs in the Dining Complex (No. 19), across from the Rec Center. For additional information, visit <https://www.calpolydining.com/myrons/>.

Faculty/Staff Appreciation Night at Men's Oct. 21 Soccer Game

To honor what faculty and staff members do for the university, Cal Poly Athletics will offer four free general admission tickets to the men's soccer match on Sunday, Oct. 21. Faculty/Staff Appreciation Night features Cal Poly and UC Irvine in the final regular season home game at 5 p.m. in Spanos Stadium. Claim your free tickets to the match by showing a Cal Poly ID at the Cal Poly Ticket Office or at the Spanos Stadium Box Office on the night of the match. For more information or to purchase tickets to other men's soccer matches, visit www.gopoly.com.

Employment

ASI Employment Opportunities

Candidates are asked to visit the ASI website to complete an ASI application and apply for open positions. For more information, visit the ASI Business Office in UU 212 or call ext. 6-5800.

Coordinator - Recreational Sports.

Annual salary $52,794 with excellent benefits. Position open until filled.

Coordinator - Aquatics and Safety.

Annual salary $52,794 with excellent benefits. Position open until filled.

Assistant Coordinator - Accounting.

$22.50/hour with excellent benefits. Position open until filled.

Teacher. $15.44/hour with excellent benefits. Position open until filled.

Campus Dining to Celebrate National Food Day on Oct. 18

Come celebrate National Food Day with Campus Dining for plenty of fun, tasty and educational opportunities from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 18, on Dexter lawn. Sample local treats from Edna's Bakery and LA and SF Specialty produce. Participate in Lucy's Juice's "Fender Blender" competition for a chance to win a prize. Drop by 805 Kitchen, where Campus Dining will feature Beyond Burger, a delicious vegetarian burger, at its action station, and at 805 Café, Sambazon will hand out free samples and information. This is the fourth year Campus Dining has participated in National Food Day, an annual celebration designed to encourage Americans to examine food policies and food-related issues.

Students, Faculty and Staff Volunteers Still Needed for Marathon Reading of 'Frankenstein'; Reserve a Time Slot by Oct. 19

"Franken Fall" is a series of interdisciplinary events to commemorate the 200th anniversary of Mary Shelley's 1818 novel "Frankenstein." The campus community is invited to participate in this international celebration. Campus events will begin Oct. 31 with a daylong public reading of the novel in Kennedy Library. Some 125 readers are needed for five-minute readings from the 1818 edition of the novel. Volunteers should sign up for a time slot before Friday, Oct. 19. The performance is part of the Keats-Shelley Association of America's "Frankenreads," a worldwide marathon reading of the novel involving more than 450 institutions. Other "Franken Fall events" include a screening of National Theatre Live's "Frankenstein," a library exhibit of student projects, and a talk by Gillen D'Arcy Wood titled "Frankenstein and Climate Change." Events are free and open to the public. For more information, visit the library website.

Facilities to Host Nov. 7-8 Fall Summit and Open House; To Attend You Need to Register by Nov. 1

Facilities Management and Development will host its Fall Summit and Open House on Wednesday, Nov. 7 and Thursday, Nov. 8, at the Facilities building (No. 70). The deadline to register is 5 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 1. The summit will include more than a dozen sessions spread over two days that showcase the breadth and scope of Facilities initiatives, processes and ways to improve work stations. Day 1 kicks off with a 9 a.m. coffee with the department's leadership team followed by a day-and-a-half of fun, informative sessions, a raffle, giveaways and lunch. Sessions include: Office Ergonomics: Let's Get Comfortable!, Keep it Safe! Information Security and Confidential Shredding Services, Facilitating the Future — A Facilities Management and Development Overview, You Ain't Seen Nothing Yet — Cal Poly's Push Toward Zero Waste, and many more. To see the full agenda or to register, click here. Follow Facilities on its Inside Cal Poly! Facebook page. Questions? Contact: Facilities Help Center at ext. 6-5555 or email facilities-cbs@calpoly.edu.

In Memoriam

James H. Maul passed away on Oct. 11, 2018, in Santa Rosa. He was 91. He was born in Covina where he met and married Beverly Wagner. He graduated from USC with a degree in architecture and began his "green" architecture career in Southern California. Maul moved his family to Morro Bay in 1970. He taught architecture at Cal Poly and continued his successful and extensive environmental architecture work with projects throughout San Luis Obispo County. He was an eloquent speaker in regards to respecting the environment and leaving the smallest imprint. He loved spending time with his wife, family and friends. He enjoyed lots of adventure, travel, pen-and-ink sketching, flying his plane and dedicating time to the environment and his community. He was preceded in death by his wife. A public celebration of life gathering for the couple will be announced in the coming months.