Center for Service in Action Launches Make a Difference Month

The Center for Service in Action is designating the month of October as Make a Difference Month. In the spirit of kicking off the year with a focus on giving back, the monthlong service event aims to connect local organizations with campus community members seeking meaningful service opportunities. The center is actively seeking to partner with San Luis Obispo County organizations and Cal Poly faculty and staff who may be interested in community service opportunities during Make a Difference Month. The campus community is encouraged to consider serving as individuals or as teams from departments and programs on campus. For more information or to sign up for a community service opportunity, visit serviceinaction.calpoly.edu/MADM. Part of the month's festivities is a Community Volunteer Service Fair to be held on Dexter Lawn from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 22. All members of the campus community are welcome to explore opportunities with a wide spectrum of Community Partner agencies from short-term service to joining boards of directors.

Come to a CultureFest Block Party on Oct. 12

The campus community is invited to the annual CultureFest Celebration on Saturday, Oct. 12, hosted by the Cross Cultural Centers, in celebration of the incredible diversity and culture that makes up the Cal Poly campus. Stop by anytime from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the UU Plaza. This year's theme is a "CultureFest Block Party" which seeks to honor the history of communities, in particular communities of color, coming together to celebrate culture and unity through music, food and dance. The family friendly event will include games, activities and performances.

Find out Results of CPX Survey at Oct. 17 Keynote Event

Hear the results of last spring's Cal Poly Experience (CPX) Survey and listening sessions at a campuswide keynote event Oct. 17 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Cal Poly Recreation Center Multi-Activity Center. Diversity expert Damon A. Williams and his team will present the findings and engage the campus in deeper conversations, which continue from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 18. A new session has been for campus community members to learn how to access the data to advance diversity, equity and inclusion scholarship and overall institutional improvement efforts on campus. The session will be held Oct. 18 from 3:10 to 4:30 p.m. in Mott Athletics Center, Room 205E. The events are all free, but registration is required at <http://bit.ly/CPXInstitute>. The keynote and all of the sessions will be livestreamed. Find livestream links at <https://diversity.calpoly.edu/sdli/>.

Staff Parking Available in K-2 Lot Behind North Mountain Residence Halls

Staff can take advantage of a designated parking lot near the east side of campus. The reconfigured R-1 parking lot consists of the southern two terraces of parking stalls located directly across Klamath Road from Trinity Hall, south of Mountain Lane. The area located north of Mountain Lane has been designated as the K-2 parking lot. The K-2 parking lot is designated as a staff lot Monday to Friday, 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. The K-2 lot can be accessed via Village Drive and Mountain Lane from North Perimeter Road and is marked and available for staff parking.

CalPERS is Coming to Cal Poly on Oct. 23

California Public Employees Retirement System (CalPERS) will be on campus Wednesday, Oct. 23, hosting workshops to help employees learn more about CalPERS retirement benefits. The workshops include:
— Your CalPERS and You (for early to mid-career members). This class will help members get a head start on understanding their retirement benefits.
— Planning Your Retirement (for members one to five years from retirement). Learn how to plan for retirement and the process of retiring.

Enrollment is limited and attendance is subject to supervisory approval and based on departmental operational needs. Learn more and register at <https://afd.calpoly.edu/hr/benefits/events.php/#id-30>. Anyone with questions or needing assistance should contact Human Resources at ext. 6-2236 or benefits@calpoly.edu.

'Disability Tapas' Offered Every Wednesday

Disabilities come in many forms and can vary greatly. Join the Disability Resource Center (DRC) for some bite-size information and interactive discussions on a variety of disability-related topics. Presentations are geared toward faculty and staff — students are also welcome — and offered every Wednesday from 11:10 a.m. to noon in the Student Services Building (No. 124), Room 224, or attend via Zoom at <https://calpoly.zoom.us/j/631092891>. The dates and topics are:

- Oct. 16: Access Needs for Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing Students
- Oct. 23: ADA/504 Accommodations: Equitable Access and Legal Considerations
- Oct. 30: Supporting Students with Autism
- Nov. 6: Assistive Technology in the Classroom: Getting Good Grades with Gadgets
- Nov. 13: Accessible Learning Spaces: Addressing Mobility and Visual Access Needs
- Nov. 20: Supporting Students with ADHD
- Dec. 4: Supporting Students with Traumatic Brain Injury and Post-Concussive Syndrome

For more information, contact the Disability Resource Center at drc@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-1395.

Womxn's Faculty and Staff Association Announces Fall Meeting Dates

Join the Womxn's Faculty and Staff Association for its fall meetings, which will be held the third Friday of the month at noon and the second Friday in December in the Graphic Arts Building (No. 26), Room 109. Fall meeting dates are Oct. 18, Nov. 15 and Dec. 13. The association has changed its name to Womxn's Faculty and Staff Association to more clearly express the intention to explicitly include women of color, trans women, and other womxn who have historically been excluded and further marginalized by virtue of multiple, intersecting identities. The mission of the Womxn's Faculty Staff Association is to create a network to connect, empower and advocate for self-identified womxn at Cal Poly. Anyone with questions or those wanting to join the association's email list should email wfsa@calpoly.edu.

Chicanx/Latinx Faculty Staff Association Fall Welcome Set for Oct. 10

The Chicanx/Latinx Faculty Staff Association (CLFSA) will hold its 12th annual Fall Welcome from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10, in the yakʔitʔutʔu community center (No. 172H). This event, open to all, is an opportunity to celebrate Latinx culture and connect with faculty, staff and students. To add your name to the email list for future notifications about meetings and events, contact Debra Valencia-Laver at dvalenc@calpoly.edu. For more information, visit the CLFSA website at <https://clfsa.calpoly.edu/>.
