Retirements

Susan Stewart, analyst/programmer for Student Academic Services (SAS), will retire in November after 35 years of service to Cal Poly. Stewart joined the Financial Aid Office in 1980 as a student assistant, moved to a staff position in July 1983, and quickly advanced to become a senior data control technician. She worked on the IBM System/36, using Z-Writer and FOCUS programming code. In 1990 Stewart moved to Student Academic Services where she flourished for the next 28 years. She has been instrumental in developing FileMaker databases. Stewart was honored with the Student Affairs Outstanding Employee Award in 1996 and the Chandler Award in 2009. A retirement reception will be held from 2 to 4:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 29, in the Bonderson Engineering Project Center (No. 197), Room 104. Questions? Contact Angela Marino at amarin07@calpoly.edu.

In Memoriam

On Aug. 21, 2018, the Cal Poly community lost a dear friend and a dedicated leader. Al Amaral, 78, graduated from Cal Poly in 1965 and returned three years later to teach agriculture management before taking over the helm of the Cal Poly Foundation, a role that he held for 28 years until his retirement in 2000. Former colleagues recall a man who lived and breathed Cal Poly, and whose pride in the organization that he led was only outweighed by the pride he had in the staff. During his tenure, the Cal Poly Foundation became the jewel of the CSU auxiliaries. He served as president of the Auxiliary Organization Association in 1977 and 1991, sharing his knowledge and expertise. In 1989 he was CAFES Honored Alumnus and received the Outstanding Staff/Employee award in 1986. Amaral, alongside his wife, Rose, firmly believed in the importance of education and established the Al and Rose Amaral Ag Enterprise Endowment to benefit future generations of Cal Poly students.
