CPX Survey Results to be Revealed Oct. 17

Registration is open for the Strategic Diversity Leadership Institute, a series of sessions that will dive deeper into the results from last spring's CPX (Cal Poly Experience) listening sessions and campuswide survey. On Oct. 17-18, come hear the results of the CPX study and learn how the campus community can turn this data into actionable change to create a more equitable, inclusive environment for all. Damon A. Williams and his team will return to campus to present findings from the CPX Survey from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 17, in the Cal Poly Recreation Center Multi-Activity Center. On Friday, Oct. 18, Williams and his team will engage the campus in deeper conversations during a daylong series of sessions from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Space is limited for these sessions, and access will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Register at <http://bit.ly/CPXInstitute>.

State of Diversity Series Kick-off Set for Sept. 30

Join the Cross Cultural Centers (CCC) and the Office of University Diversity and Inclusion (OUDI) for the State of Diversity Series kick-off event and light refreshments from 5 to 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 30, in Chumash Auditorium in the University Union. The theme of the first State of Diversity event is "State of Diversity at Cal Poly: Acknowledging the Past, Recognizing the Present, Looking Forward." Come hear remarks from campus leaders and a panel discussion featuring faculty, staff and students from across the university, moderated by Julie Garcia, interim associate vice president for diversity and inclusion. Garcia and the panel will discuss some of the demographic trends and successful programs that are making Cal Poly more diverse and a more inclusive campus for everyone. Anyone with questions or needing to request accommodations can contact the CCC at culture@calpoly.edu.

Sept. 25 is Last Day to RSVP for Staff Appreciation Barbecue and Football Game

The annual universitywide Staff Appreciation Barbecue/Football Game is scheduled for Oct. 5.
