Convocation Set for Sept. 12

Faculty and staff are invited to attend the annual Convocation event at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 12, in the Performing Arts Center. Dean Wendt, dean of the College of Science and Mathematics, will serve as emcee. The theme of this year's general session is "Cal Poly: Past, Present, and Future." The program includes the presentation of awards; President Armstrong will give the university address. A reception will immediately follow at approximately 4 p.m. in the PAC Plaza, with food and entertainment. Spouses and partners of employees are welcome to attend. More information, including profiles of the award winners, is available online at <https://fallconference.calpoly.edu/>.

Campus Invited to Hear CPX Survey Findings, Attend Sessions Oct. 17-18

On Oct. 17 and 18, Damon Williams and his team will return to campus to present the results of the Cal Poly Xperience (CPX) Survey conducted during the 2019 spring quarter, and to lead a daylong Strategic Diversity Leadership Institute (SDLI). Williams will present findings from the CPX Survey from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 17, in the Cal Poly Recreation Center Multi-Activity Center. On Friday, Oct. 18, Williams and his team will engage the campus in deeper conversations during a daylong series of sessions in the SDLI from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Space is limited for the sessions, and access is on a first-come, first-served basis. Registration information will be posted at <https://diversity.calpoly.edu/cpx/survey/> in early September.

Switch to eduroam Before Sept. 8

The SecureMustangWireless network is being decommissioned and will no longer be available after Sunday, Sept. 8. You'll need to update your devices' wireless internet settings to eduroam by Sept. 8 to continue accessing campus Wi-Fi. If you've never connected to eduroam before, it requires a one-time setup using your full Cal Poly email address (including the @calpoly.edu) and password. For help getting connected, and more information about the unique benefits of eduroam, visit <http://bit.ly/CPWiFi>.

Applications Being Accepted for the Cal Poly Learning Lab Preschool

The Cal Poly Psychology and Child Development Preschool Learning Lab — open to the entire campus community — is accepting applications for new students for the 2019-20 school year. Children of faculty and staff receive priority. The lab offers a low teacher-child ratio, while providing a high-quality preschool atmosphere that supports the developmental needs of the whole child in a warm, nurturing, play-based environment. For more information, visit <https://preschoollearninglab.calpoly.edu/>.

Volunteers Sought to Welcome Mustangs at Fall Move-In University Housing invites all faculty and staff to volunteer to help new and returning students move into campus residence halls and apartments during Mustang Move-in, Sept. 13-16. This is a fun way to be one of the first to welcome students and their supporters to campus. As a volunteer, you may: Welcome new students and their supporters, provide directions and answer questions, help unload cars into rolling carts and direct students to buildings, collect rolling cars, or coordinate student and staff volunteers (lead volunteers). Most students will arrive Sept. 14 and 16. Departments are encouraged to coordinate a date and time for teams of staff. All volunteers will receive a meal voucher, Mustang Welcome Team T-shirt and a commemorative pin. To learn more and sign up, visit <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080d44aca928aOff2-nonlead>.

Join TAPS for Free Bowling on Sept. 6

Transportation and Parking Services (TAPS) invites the campus community for the second "Find Your Lane" free pizza and bowling event from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 6. The event, held in partnership with SLO Rideshare to promote vanpool and carpool options on campus, is aimed at helping Cal Poly employees learn more about alternative transportation options — and, if interested, helping them find a vanpool near them. This is a great opportunity to cheer on vanpool mates, show your skills, eat pizza, and socialize with others who are working to build a better Cal Poly community. For more information, visit commute.calpoly.edu.

Staff Appreciation Barbecue and Football Game Set for Oct. 5

Save the Date — the annual universitywide staff appreciation barbecue/football game event is scheduled for Oct. 5. In appreciation for all you do for Cal Poly all year long, you are invited to a fun-filled day, including a barbecue, ice cream bars and a football game. All staff will receive an email invitation with a link for complimentary tickets (up to four per staff member; additional tickets may be purchased). The tailgate barbecue will be held from 2:30 to 4:45 p.m. on O'Neill Green; kickoff follows at 5:05 p.m. in Spanos Stadium for the Cal Poly football game versus Montana State.

Office of the Registrar to Host Inaugural Summit Oct. 9

The Office of the Registrar will hold its inaugural summit on Wednesday, Oct. 9, at the Performing Arts Center. This on-campus conference offers an opportunity to learn more about the Office of the Registrar and its interaction with faculty, staff and students. Each of the four units within the office (Records; Evaluations; Systems Management and Curriculum; Catalog and Scheduling) will host a variety of sessions throughout the day on topics ranging from enrollment troubleshooting to the articulation process. The day will conclude with information on what's coming from the Office of the Registrar, including an overview of Degree Planner, Schedule Builder and CourseLeaf CLSS. Visit <https://registrar.calpoly.edu> for up-to-date information on conference sessions. Registration is required.

Retirements

Chris Call will retire on Friday, Sept. 27, after 12 years of service. Call began her Cal Poly career in Administration and Finance (A&F), where she was instrumental in upgrading the Cal Poly Police Department's parking system. From there, she transitioned to A&F's Information Security office where she helped build the Information Security Program. Call later continued her work in Information Security for Information Technology Services (ITS). In her current role as Innovation Challenge Manager for the Cal Poly Digital Transformation Hub (DxHub), Call works with students, faculty and members of the public sector to develop innovative solutions to real-world challenges. She looks forward to enjoying all that retirement has to offer, including spending time with friends and family and hiking new trails. A reception will be held in Call's honor at Charlie's Place from 4-6 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 26.
