

EMERGING Job Realities: THE BUSINESS OF BUILDING

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 2021
11:00am - 12:00pm

Whether it's in the planning, designing, financing, overseeing, or the brick-and-mortar construction of our built environment, there are many ways in which the worlds of business and building intersect. This panel discussion will explore the emerging realities faced by professionals in these fields and share ideas for how students can build skills now which will help prepare them for a rapidly evolving workplace.
