

Taylor Smith

634 Broad Street • San Luis Obispo, CA 9340 • 805.555.1111 • tsmith@calpoly.edu

Objective

A summer internship at Amnesty International

Education

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo

Bachelor of Science in Anthropology, June 2016

Minor: Women's & Gender Studies

• GPA: 3.45

• Dean's List – 2 quarters

• Class Level: Junior

Outreach & Human Service Experience

International Center, Cal Poly – San Luis Obispo

Student Assistant

Fall 2012 - Present

- Created a weekly, ongoing program to connect international students
- Assisted Program Coordinator with 3 workshops a quarter
- Enhanced teamwork ability by co-facilitating International Coffee and Tea Time Program
- Developed materials to advertise programs using Photoshop

Change the Status Quo Conference, Cal Poly - San Luis Obispo

Volunteer

Winter 2014

- Participated in a two day conference addressing a variety of social justice issues
- Volunteered with set up and clean for both days
- Learned new ways to be an effective advocate for human rights

Alternative Break Program, Cal Poly - San Luis Obispo

Volunteer

Fall 2013

- Attended 4 meetings to prepare for service trip
- Built a home with team of 10 for a family affected by Hurricane Katrina
- Assisted with travel arrangements for 10 other individuals
- Developed a greater awareness of volunteerism and service to others

Leadership / Involvement

Triota Cal Poly - San Luis Obispo

Member

Fall 2011 - Present

- Increase membership in the club through email, posters, and word of mouth
- Assist in events to help promote feminism and women's rights
- Attend weekly meetings
- Volunteered over 100 hours

Intramural Soccer, Cal Poly

Referee

Winter 2013 – Winter 2015

- Refereed two games a week during the season
- Ensured rules and regulations were enforced during games

Work Experience

Pizza Solo – San Luis Obispo, CA

Server

April 2013 – December 2014

- Enhanced communication skills by working in customer service industry
- Improved ability to multitask in a fast paced environment