

Lindsey Granger

555 Smith Ave, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401 • (805) 500•3333 lgranger@calpoly.edu

Education

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo,

B.A: Comparative Ethnic Studies, Minor: Spanish,

Expected Graduation: June 2015

Related Course Work: Intercultural Communications, Global Politics

Study Abroad: Monterrey Institute of Technology, Queretaro, Mexico

August 2013- July 2014

Community Outreach

Pacheco Pass, Bilingual Elementary School, California

January 2015 – February 2015

Objective: Inspire young people, particularly from underrepresented groups, to consider careers in engineering and computer science.

- Tasks: Translate material for ESL students, ensure material presented at appropriate level, work as team with ICEX to present and teach program information

21 de Mayo, Elementary School, Queretaro, Mexico

January 2014 – June 2014

Objective: Learn about Mexican culture and education in public schools

- Tasks: Teacher, create and implement lesson plans, use government issued books, teach 45 students, Spanish only, evaluate, apply various forms of media (e.g. projector, music, short videos, & power points)

Instituto Thomas Jefferson, Elementary School, Queretaro, Mexico

August 2013 – December 2013

Objective: Learn about Mexican culture and education in private schools

- Tasks: Teacher's aid, implement lesson plans, actively engage students, work individually with students, and help teacher to improve classroom atmosphere

Social Organizations

Triota: Women's and Gender Studies Honor Society

Objective: Work toward a greater awareness of women's and gender issues on and off campus

Ethnic Studies Panel Member

Objective: Represent the common interest of all Ethnic Studies majors and minors

Select Writings

Storytelling

- Theoretical analysis of indigenous perspectives on methods and values of web-storytelling

The Economic Diamond

- Comparative analysis of economic failure as a leading factor to the cause of war

Achieving Liberty

- Comprehensive analysis of arguments made by Booker T. Washington and W.E.B. Du Bois

Skills

Microsoft Word, Power Point, public speaking, social media, fluent Spanish

Work Experience

Server, Me & Z's Mexican Food Restaurant

June 2014 – present

Server, Pastry Chef, Roses Landing

July 2012 – 2013

Lead Stock/manager, Abercrombie and Fitch

January 2011 – 2012

