

Julia H. Fielding

1111 Santa Barbara Street Apt. 1 | San Luis Obispo, California, 93401 | (805)811-1111 | juliaFielding@yahoo.com

Objective: Teacher position with the Laguna Beach Children's Center

Education/ Training

California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo

Bachelor of Science: Child Development, June 2007

Concentration: Counseling and Family Psychology Minor: Women's Studies

Child Development Experience

ASI Children's Center, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, California

Special Needs Child Assistant

June 2005-September 2005

- Worked one on one with special needs child and assisted him in social skill development.
- Collaborated with parents, psychologists, and teachers to create methods for behavior modification and positive interactions with other children.

Student Staff

September 2002-September 2005

- Provided leadership and a commitment to providing quality childcare to the Cal Poly community.
- Supervised college student staff in the absence of a head teacher: Worked to facilitate and encourage the learning and personal development of student staff.
- Provided a quality environment where children could thrive and discover: Facilitated the growth and development of children through documentation, developmental-level appropriate curriculum and working with parents to meet their child's needs.

Intern

January 2005-March 2005

- Attended parent-teacher conferences, collected data and observations into a book.

Supervised Study

March 2002-June 2002

- Faculty supervised study of infants through observations, planning and coordinating activities, and data collection.

Child Protective Services, San Luis Obispo, California

Intern

March 2004-June 2004

- Worked with a diverse population transporting children to and from visitations: Supervised weekly visitations while applying independent judgment, discretion, initiative, and confidentiality.
- Documented visitations and filed documents.

Additional Instruction

Surf Sessions, Hermosa Beach, California

Surf Camp Director

June 2001- September 2003

- Directed a group of thirty children, supervised and evaluated four staff, trained staff, led surf demonstrations, organized and coordinated day to day activities, corresponded with parents, supervised children in the water, provided first aid.

Carla Funk, Encinitas, California

Pottery Instructor

June 2001-September 2001

- Coordinated and supervised a group of twenty children to learn how to work with clay and the pottery wheel. Organized day to day activities and corresponded with parents.

Related Coursework

Parent-Child Relationships

Supervised Study of Children: Infants and Toddlers

Supervised Study of Children: Early Childhood

Family Psychology

Family Intervention

Behavioral Disorders in Children

Developmental Psychology

Learning