GRADUATE STATUS REPORT

INTRODUCTION

2005-06 proved to be a positive year for newly graduated Cal Poly students entering the job market. For the fourth consecutive year, the job market remains strong, translating into job opportunities and higher starting salaries. 92% of the graduates who responded to the survey were either employed full-time or enrolled in post graduate education, mirroring the last two year's employment data.

JOB MARKET

The job market for 2005-06 graduates continues to be active, competitive and strong. This was demonstrated by increases in on-campus recruiting, job listings and especially job fair participation. Career Services has increased our ability to serve the growing number of employers interested in hiring Cal Poly students through facility expansion and two-day job fairs. Industries related to accounting, financial services, consulting services, engineering, technology, architectural, construction, and biomedical contributed to a strong job market.

MEDIAN SALARY

The chart below indicates the median salary of each academic college for 2005-06. The median annual income increased for each of the colleges this report period over the previous year.
