

CAL POLY ENGINEERS!

Earn Up to $101,500 in college!

Navy Civil Engineer Corps

Benefits

- Earn $3,704 – $4,299 per month while completing your college degree
- Medical, dental, and life insurance provided
- Accrue 30 days of paid vacation per year
- Military retirement account with 1% government contribution
- Counts toward 20 years required for military retirement pension
- THERE ARE NO UNIFORMS, HAIRCUTS, DRILLING, OR MILITARY CLASSES REQUIRED WHILE IN COLLEGE!
- THIS IS NOT ROTC!
- Advanced training after college prior to starting career
- Fully funded postgraduate education opportunities to earn a master's degree in a variety of engineering fields
- Work counts as experience for Professional Engineer certification

Qualifications

- US citizen
- Meet Navy medical and height/weight standards
- Enrolled in or graduated from an ABET-EAC accredited engineering program or an NAAB accredited architecture degree.
- Minimum 2.7 GPA

Additional details are on the Civil Engineer Corps Accessions website:

Overview

- Launch your career before completing college with the Navy Civil Engineer Corps Program
- CEC Officers are the Navy's facilities experts in charge of engineering, management, planning, construction, and maintenance of the Navy's worldwide shore infrastructure
- Perform humanitarian construction and disaster response throughout the world
- Be part of a team that manages more than $15 billion annual business in design, construction, and service contracts
- Manage the efforts of a large and diverse civilian and military workforce
- Supervise construction, identify problems, devise solutions, and obtain engineering management experience, responsibility and authority far exceeding that offered in the private sector

For more information:

LCDR Kyra Borromeo, 805-602-0590, kyra.borromeo@navy.mil