MUSIC

Designed for the student who wants a broad education in music, the Bachelor of Arts degree in music offers a balanced program of study in a wide range of subjects including electives and an individual final capstone project. Students can customize their degree and choose to focus on subjects including composition, music education, jazz, music history, ethnomusicology, performance or technology. Music majors have access to the many opportunities and resources of a large, diverse campus. There will be collaborations with students from across colleges in our ensembles, and horizons can be expanded by exploring a variety of disciplines with exemplary faculty. Cal Poly is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.
