SPANISH

The World Languages and Cultures Department offers coursework in beginning, intermediate and advanced French, German and Spanish, as well as coursework in beginning and intermediate Mandarin Chinese, Italian and Japanese. Instruction at all levels emphasizes communicative competence and the use of authentic media to prepare students for cultural, educational, literary and professional needs in California, throughout the United States, and abroad. The department supports the concept of international education and encourages students to investigate opportunities for meaningful international study, internships and educational experiences.

Major and Minors

Spanish (B.A.)

Spanish majors and minors have been successful in careers in education, international business, finance, nonprofit agencies, the viticulture industry, and government service. Others have attended graduate and professional schools in various fields, including languages and literatures, linguistics, speech pathology, law, medicine and engineering. Our graduates have also been selected to teach in secondary schools in Spain (North American Language and Culture Assistants) and France (Teaching Assistant Program in France).
