THE ROLE OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS AND COMPLIANCE OFFICE

In addition to serving as the Title IX Coordinator, the Assistant Vice President for the Civil Rights and Compliance office (CRCO) is designated as the DHR Administrator and is the person on campus authorized to receive and coordinate responses to reports of discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

CRCO will respond in a timely and appropriate manner to all complaints and will take appropriate action to correct and prevent continuation of policy violations. CRCO will also discuss your rights, options and the supportive measures that are available to you.

Cal Poly takes DHR matters seriously and is committed to maintaining an inclusive community that values diversity and fosters tolerance and mutual respect.

Discrimination or harassment based on any protected status is prohibited by university policy and may also violate state or federal law.
