November in Student Community Services
Learn by Doing Good.

Change the Status Quo: Social Justice Conference
The Center for Service in Action is recruiting students for the Change the Status Quo (CSQ) Planning Board. As a student-led event, CSQ recruits students with a passion for social justice, event planning, and marketing to help propel the conference to a new level this year.

For more information or to apply, go to csq.calpoly.edu or come to the Center for Service in Action (CSA) in Building 52, room E22. Completed applications may be dropped off in the CSA or emailed to kvinther@calpoly.edu and are due by noon on November 4, 2016.

Alternative Breaks DEADLINE EXTENDED
The deadline for the Selma Alternative Breaks service project trip has been extended to Friday, October 28th at Noon! Don’t miss out on this incredible opportunity to spend part of your winter break doing community service through the framework of leadership, social justice, and Civil Rights. Join us to learn about an important part of our history, which remains so relevant today.

Go to the Alternative Breaks website to download an application for the trip and a sponsorship application, if you have a current FAFSA on file with the Financial Aid Office.

November Volunteer Events
Students for Health and Well-Being: Morro Bay Triathlon

Join us for the Morro Bay Triathlon at Coleman Park in Morro Bay, Sunday November 6 at 7:15 a.m! What better way to kick off your Sunday than assisting at aid stations on the run course, and watching the participants compete in a true test of athleticism? All proceeds go to benefit global water projects. See you there!

WHERE: 101 Coleman Dr., Morro Bay
WHEN: Sunday, November 6
7:30am-11:15am
Sign-up here

Students Supporting People with Disabilities Karaoke & Game Night!

We have invited United Cerebral Palsy and the Central Coast Autism Spectrum Center to take part in a karaoke night on campus! Join us for singing, camaraderie, and fun in the Sierra Madre lounge.

WHEN: Friday, November 11
6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.
WHERE: Sierra Madre Lounge
Sign-up here

Environmental Council & One Cool Earth

Join local non-profit and Environmental Council in a tree planting extravaganza! We will host two groups planting native Oaks and other trees both here on campus and at beautiful Whale Rock Reservoir. We will meet at campus market and depart to the planting areas as a group. Come help us restore some of the native plants to San Luis Obispo County!

WHERE: Whale Rock Reservoir
Meet at Campus Market
WHEN: Saturday, November 5
9:30 a.m.-12:15 p.m
Sign-up here!

WHERE: On-campus planting
Meet at Campus Market
WHEN: Sunday, November 6
10:00 a.m.-12:15 p.m.
Sign-up here!

Meade Canine Rescue & Poly Paws

Municipal pounds are often overpopulated and, as a result, end up euthanizing animals. Meade Canine Rescue is a non-profit, no kill shelter that rescues animals from municipal pounds. Join us to help this amazing organization with their memorial garden and other tasks around their rescue ranch. Show some love to these rescue dogs!

WHEN: Saturday, November 5
9:30 a.m.-12:45 p.m.
WHERE: Meade Canine Rescue
Sign-up here!
Prado Breakfast with Beyond Shelter
There are in excess of 2,186 homeless people in San Luis Obispo. Volunteers will have the opportunity to prepare and serve breakfast for the only Day Center in SLO devoted to services for the homeless population. Help Beyond Shelter offer needed services to the homeless community.

WHEN: Saturday, November 5
7:50am-9:10am
WHERE: Prado Day Center, 43 Prado Rd.
Sign-up here

Life Mapping with Youth Programs & Grizzly Youth Academy
Youth coaches are needed to guide four or more high school students utilizing the Life Mapping coursework. This is an opportunity to help inspire youth and help them to discover their abilities and dreams. You will guide students through a Personal Analysis, Vocational Interest Youth Survey, seek guidance from the residents of Fort Hope, and finalize the student’s life map.

WHEN: Friday, November 4
8:00am-1:00pm
WHERE: Fort Hope, Arroyo Grande
Sign-up here

Poly Paws Partners with Woods Humane Society
Woods Humane Society is an independent nonprofit organization dedicated to the humane care of homeless dogs and cats in San Luis Obispo County. Their work includes finding loving homes for pets, working to end pet overpopulation through spay/neuter efforts, and humane education opportunities for children. SCS will host an information session with Woods to talk about opportunities to volunteer on a weekly basis with this amazing organization. To find out how you can get involved sign-up here!

Students for Health and Well-Being & Project Teen Health
Project Teen Health’s (PTH) mission is to reduce and prevent adolescent obesity by providing research-supported, innovative, culturally sensitive, and youth-driven programs. PTH serves youth at Arroyo Grande High School, Nipomo High School, Paso Robles High School and Santa Maria High School providing a variety of no-cost programs including afternoon bootcamp. For information on volunteering, contact Kaelon Russell at krussell@capslo.org.

Student Community Services is part of the following family of programs in the Dean of Students.

Center for Service in Action
Center for Leadership and Service

EMAIL US
Embrace Your Unlimited Possibilities