III. Approval of minutes from last meeting Josh Lazar read the minutes from the last meeting. The minutes were approved as read.

IV. Open issues
a) Natalie talked about the Club Sports/IM Olympics event, and announced the events, which will be separated into three categories: speed and stamina, strength and skill, and intellect. The date of the event is May 13th, and teams will pay $40 each for the event. Food will be provided!

b) Natalie reviewed all of the upcoming Club Sports events: Farmer’s Market on April 14th, Club Sports Olympics on May 13th, and the Club Sports Banquet on May 26th.

V. New business
a) Anthony talked about installing a trophy case in the University Union for Club Sports (and all clubs) to showcase their achievements. He wants to have the project done by the end of the year. Took a quick vote on the location of the trophy case and decided on between the cement columns in the UU hallway.

b) Dylan Huynh from Colleges Against Cancer talked about getting teams involved with Relay for Life. Talked about how club sports can help to put on fun activities like Quidditch team did last year. Relay for Life will be April 29\textsuperscript{th}-April 30\textsuperscript{th}. Dylan also discussed how students can sign up and handed out fliers on the event. The theme will be “Paint Your World Purple.”

c) Camille Lethcoe, the Student Director on the Cal Poly Foundation Board, discussed her philanthropy day, Serve SLO, on April 30\textsuperscript{th}, 8:30 AM-12:30PM. There will be a neighborhood clean-up, a barbecue, and a guest speaker.

d) Becca Immel from Cal Poly Open House, talked about the different events that Club Sports can get involved in. Events include Friday Nite Invite, Poly Royal Parade, the Kid’s Fair

e) Natalie then announced the Cal Poly Club Sports Instagram/Facebook photo competition and told about the prize, a $50 gift card to Fatte’s for the winner’s team.

f) Natalie also talked about the harsh reality of the impending end of the school year, when officers will have to be replaced and new officers will be trained.

g) Annie gave her updates on graduation sashes, pictures and video footage for the end of the year video, and Open House weekend. Club Sports will have a space reserved for Farmers Market, and teams are encouraged to come.
Everette then followed up and stressed the importance of teams participating in Farmers Market.

h) Karen Aydelott then gave a speech about the importance of leadership and participation in Club Sports. She motivated attendees through her inspiring story of how she lost her leg and highlighted the importance of maintaining a positive attitude and smiling through hardship.

VI. Adjournment
