

SARAH WINNEMUCCA HOPKINS

“Take Me To Your Leader”

Sarah Winnemucca’s Transnational Authority in

Life Among the Piutes:
Their Wrongs and Claims

Talk based on his forthcoming book,
The Ends of Transnationalism and Nineteenth-Century US Cultural Imperialism:

JOHN CARLOS ROWE

One of the nation’s foremost Americanists, John Carlos Rowe has been largely responsible for helping spearhead the "new American studies" as well as the rise of international American studies programs across the globe. He has published widely on Henry James, the Intersections of nineteenth-century American literature and postmodern theory and U.S. imperialism.

SPONSORED BY THE CLA LOTTERY FUND AND ETHNIC STUDIES

May 17, 2018

4:30 PM-6:30 PM

UU Room 220

