

CAL POLY

2026 Panetta Institute Congressional Internship Program

CAL POLY IS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS for the Panetta Congressional Internship Program, a fully funded experience in Washington, D.C., available to selected California State University students. Each fall quarter the Panetta Institute for Public Policy presents a two-week training session on the campus of CSU Monterey. Students then head to Washington, D.C., for 11 weeks to work in the office of a California member of the House of Representatives while earning college credit.

APPLICANTS FROM ALL MAJORS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS:

- Matriculating third- or fourth-year with junior or senior status during the time of the internship and has not applied for graduation. Graduate students are not eligible.
- Exemplary leadership abilities
- U.S. citizen and California resident
- Demonstrates commitment to community and public service
- GPA 3.5 or above
- Less than 180 credit quarter units

For more information regarding eligibility, the application process and program details, contact the Office of the Provost at 805-756-2186 or visit <https://provost.calpoly.edu/node/1030/>

The Cal Poly Panetta Congressional Intern is supported in part through the Ed and Jan Slevin Congressional Internship Endowment.
