First-year Housing Application Steps and Timeline
Updated June 29, 2020

In order to secure housing, students must complete the following steps. So that we can be fair to all students, room selection appointments are based on a lottery.

1. Accept Cal Poly’s offer of admission.
   Only students who "accept" their offer of admission will be able to apply for campus housing.

2. Apply and pay the initial payment online.
   The 2020-21 housing application typically opens March 11. Once a student accepts their offer of admission to Cal Poly, allow one to two business days for the housing application to become available. Apply and pay through University Housing in the Cal Poly Portal.

   You can check the status of your application at any time by re-accessing your housing portal.

   Students who are not 18 years of age at the time of application will need to enter a cosigner's email in the application. The cosigner will receive an email prompting them to complete the signature step. The cosigner must complete this step for the student to complete the application and secure housing.

   The total housing and dining plan initial payment is $1,500; the housing portion is $500, the dining portion is $1,000. These fees are refundable in full to first-year students who cancel prior to Aug. 26, 2020.

   For complete payment information, view our First-year Student Housing Fees webpage. All payments are handled by Student Accounts.
