INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

WEEKLY NEWS 11/12

NOTE FROM DR. KIRBY

I mentioned a few weeks ago that we are fortunate this year to be hiring a new faculty member to teach courses and be the advisor for our concentration in Ethics, Law & Social Justice. This is an amazing opportunity for us to expand ISLA's areas of expertise. This is also a great opportunity for our students to help us decide which candidate to hire. ISLA students will have the opportunity to interact with each candidate at their public research talks, classroom presentations, and lunches.

The first of these research talks will be taking place next week:

Dr. Jordan Grasso, "Reimagining a Relational Safety: Lessons Learned from Lesbian Bars and Queer Nightlife," Tuesday, 11/18 at 1:15PM in 52-E47

Please join us for this talk. You can ask questions of the candidate and provide us feedback.

If you have any news or events that you would like to share with your fellow IS majors then please let us know at is@calpoly.edu.

My office hours this quarter are Tu 1-3PM and Th 1-3PM. You can drop by my office (52-D4) at these times or you can contact me via Zoom using this link: 6247671135. As always, I am also happy to set up other meeting times if you are not able to make these office hours. Just send me an email and we can arrange a day/time.

MEET KEELY - YOUR ISLA STUDENT

ASSISTANT!

Hi everyone! I'm Keely, a fourth year ISLA major/STS minor. I am also the ISLA student assistant!

I create these newsletters, run our ISLA social media, and support events throughout the quarter. I'm also here as a resource for you — whether you have questions about the ISLA program, need help navigating course selection or declaring a concentration/minor, or want to get more involved in the ISLA community.

 My contact information: kfrobert@calpoly.edu

I'd love to hear from you — don't hesitate to reach out, connect, or say hi around campus!

ISLA CLUB

A group of students has founded the ISLA club as a space for ISLA students to meet and connect! The first meeting has been held, but meetings will continue across the quarter.

Follow the Instagram @calpolyislaclub or join the GroupMe for more updates.

MUSTANG FILM SOCIETY

Mustang Film Society is a new club on campus aimed at fostering a community around film and providing students interested in film with opportunities to connect to others in the film industry and explore their interests! This may be of interest to any MAST minor students.

If interested, please contact Dr. Emily Ryalls at eryalls@calpoly.edu or follow the Instagram @mustangfilmsociety

WINTER COURSE OFFERINGS

ENROLLMENT FOR ISLA /LAES 411: TECHNOLOGY AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT NOW OPEN!

M/W 2:10-4:00

ISLA/LAES 411: Technology and Community Engagement

Winter Quarter I Monday & Wednesday 2:10–4:00 PM

Explore the intersection of technology and community impact in this hands-on course. You'll examine how digital tools and technology can support social change, collaborate with local organizations, and design projects that address real-world challenges. Engage critically with the ethical, cultural, and social dimensions of technology while building skills to create meaningful community-driven solutions.

STUDENT RESEARCH POSITION - 360 VIDEO AND VR

Dr. Sandy Shen and Keri Schwab with the Experience Innovation Lab, in collaboration with the Center for Expressive Technologies, are seeking 360° VR video filming and editing support for a project studying attention restoration in natural and VR-nature settings.

We are looking for a student skilled in creating 360° VR videos to produce a five-minute immersive video of a natural area on campus. Filming will be done using a Giroptic 360 Cam, and the editing can be completed using whichever software the student assistant is most familiar with. If necessary, we can provide a subscription to the preferred editing software for the duration of the project. The position for the student assistant pays $18 per hour.

Interested students should reach out directly to Drs. Shen and Schwab yeshen@calpoly.edu and keschwab@calpoly.edu
