WEEKLY NEWS

Note from Dr. Kirby

Now that labor actions are behind us I want to make sure that everything is running smoothly for our students. Please contact me if you need any assistance. I may not be able to help you but I can certainly point you in the direction of someone who can.

My office hours this quarter are Tu 1-3PM and Th 1-3PM. You can drop by my office at these times or you can contact me via Zoom using this link: 6247671135. As always, I am also happy to set up other meeting times if you are not able to make these office hours. Just send me an email and we can arrange a day/time.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The banner features a topographic map background. At the top left, a person in a red shirt works on a wooden boat. At the top right, a sailboat is on the water. In the center, the Cal Poly University Advising logo is displayed. Below the logo, the title 'ACADEMIC ADVISING STUDENT SURVEY' is written in large, bold, green letters. A dark green horizontal band contains the text 'Give your feedback on academic advising at Cal Poly!' in white. Below this, a light green band contains the text 'Check your Cal Poly email for "Academic Advising Self-Study" from University Advising at Cal Poly' in dark green. To the right of this text is an image of a woman in a yellow top and colorful skirt looking at a book. Another dark green band contains the URL 'More information available at advising.calpoly.edu/advising-outcomes-survey' in white. The bottom section features a light green band with the text 'Survey runs between January 22 and February 09' in dark green. On the left is an image of a woman in a white shirt and green face mask playing a saxophone. On the right is an image of a woman in a blue shirt and cowboy hat riding a brown horse.

Academic Advising Student Survey!

Give feedback on academic advising at Cal Poly. This survey is part of a year-long effort led by the professional association for academic advising (NACADA) to assess advising at Cal Poly. The email will be listed as "Academic Advising Self-Study" in your student email.

Some Puzzles re: Sex, Gender, and Race-- and correlated isms

Much philosophy presupposes that personal or social identities can be analyzed through the same philosophical lens. In this talk, I will argue that we have good reasons to think that this is clearly not the case, before zooming in on some puzzles arising when we try to give a philosophical account of sexual/gender identity, sexual orientation, and racialization, including their correlated isms. This diversity in our accounts of such categories, I argue, is important not only for understanding these aspects of ourselves, but also as we take on the difficult challenges of transforming our inherited legal and political institutions into better ones.

Philosophy Talk - Some Puzzles re: Sex, Gender, and Race--and correlated isms

We are excited to host a talk on campus by Helga Varden, Professor of Philosophy, Political Science, and Women's and Gender Studies at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

(<https://philosophy.illinois.edu/directory/profile/hvarden>). Helga has written extensively on Kantian ethics and political philosophy, and on topics related to sex and gender. Her recent book Sex, Love, and Gender: A Kantian Theory (Oxford, 2020) won the North American Kant Society's 2023 Senior Scholar Prize for the best Kant book published in the years 2020, 2021, and 2022. She's a friend whose work I've admired for a while, and we are very excited to host her in person!

The title of her talk is "Some Puzzles re: Sex, Gender, and Race--and correlated isms" (see below for the abstract). The event will be held on Friday, February 2, from 12:10-2pm (two weeks from this Friday) in Erhardt 010-220. The talk itself should not last more than an hour, leaving plenty of time for Q&A. Please contact me directly for more information.

Abstract:

Much philosophy presupposes that personal or social identities can be analyzed through the same philosophical lens. In this talk, I will argue that we have good reasons to think that this is clearly not the case, before zooming in on some puzzles arising when we try to give a philosophical account of sexual/gender identity, sexual orientation, and socialization, including their correlated isms. This diversity in our accounts of such categories, I argue, is important not only for understanding these aspects of ourselves, but also as we take on the difficult challenges of transforming our inherited legal and political institutions into better ones.

The event is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts' Lottery Speakers Fund as well as the Political Science Department and the Philosophy Department. Thanks to these sources for their generous support!

2024 Panetta Institute Congressional Internship Program

CAL POLY IS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS for the Panetta Congressional Internship Program, a fully funded experience in Washington, D.C., available to selected California State University students. Each fall quarter the Panetta Institute for Public Policy presents a two-week training session on the campus of CSU Monterey. Students then head to Washington, D.C., for 11 weeks to work in the office of a California member of the House of Representatives while earning college credit.

APPLICANTS FROM ALL MAJORS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS:

- Matriculating third- or fourth-year with junior or senior status during the time of the internship and has not applied for graduation.
- Exemplary leadership abilities
- U.S. citizen and California resident
- Demonstrates commitment to community and public service
- GPA 3.5 or above
- Less than 180 credit quarter units

Join Danielle Bello, Cal Poly's 2023 Panetta Intern, for an information session to gain insights into her experience and receive valuable advice as a future applicant! The session will include a presentation and opportunities for Q&A.

Thursday, Jan. 18, 2024. 11:30 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.
Room E27, Science Building (No. 52)

For more information regarding eligibility, the application process and program details, contact the Office of the Provost at 805-756-2186 or visit provost.calpoly.edu/content/internship.

The Cal Poly Panetta Congressional Intern is supported in part through the Ed and Jan Slevin Congressional Internship Endowment.

Panetta Congressional Internship

Applications are now being accepted for the 2024 Panetta Institute Congressional Internship Program. Now in its 26th year, this prestigious program is designed to encourage and develop future leaders as well as prepare individuals for greater civic involvement. Cal Poly has been participating in this program since 2001. Our past interns consistently agree this internship was a meaningful experience.

Third or fourth year, junior and senior students are invited to apply. This opportunity is open to qualified students from ANY major who have an interest in Congress, civil leadership or public service. Complete program requirements and application details are available at <https://provost.calpoly.edu/content/internship>.

The application deadline is 12:00 pm, Monday, February 12, 2024.

Questions may be directed to Natalie Rodriguez (nrodri83@calpoly.edu or 756-2186).

Study Abroad in London Next Summer!

A note from Professor of Geography, Benjamin Timms:

We would like to invite you to join us in London next summer! This is a great opportunity to take upper division GE courses (prerequisites waived) and experience London and environs, which is one of the world's great cultural and economic centers. Here is a QR code to take you to the program website for more information:

<https://abroad.calpoly.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgramAngular&id=10889>

The six-week summer program offers students twelve Cal Poly units with three upper-division general education courses (B, C, D). Note that prerequisites will be waived for those that will be 2nd year status or don't meet the others.

Please view the website, contact the faculty members, and seriously consider coming to London next summer! Note the Olympics will be in Paris next summer, just a 2 hour train ride away.

UNITED STATES
DIGITAL

Civic Tech Fellowship Opportunity - United States Digital Corps

The US Digital Corps has started their application process on Monday November 6th. The Digital Corps is a two-year, full-time, paid fellowship for early-career technologists to serve in the federal government. Fellows contribute their skills in software engineering, data science & analytics, product management, design, and cybersecurity to high impact priorities across government. The fellowship offers competitive pay ($86k+ in Washington DC) and benefits, as well as opportunities for growth and a path to a long-term career position. The Digital Corps offers in-person, hybrid, or remote work, depending on the host agency.

If anyone is interested in learning more about the application process, they can visit the USDC website. As mentioned above, applications open on Monday, November 6th. They do have a cap on applications per track, so it's recommended to apply sooner than later. Any questions about the process can also be sent to usdigitalcorps@gsa.gov

For any questions about civic technology or the application process, reach out to Jaxon Silva (<mailto:jaxonvsilva@gmail.com>)

Urban Trees VR position

The Center for Expressive Technologies Seed Grant Team is looking for a student assistant.

Undergraduate student wanted for an interdisciplinary research collaboration with the Urban Forest Ecosystem Institute (<https://ufe.calpoly.edu/>). UFEI researchers at Cal Poly are investigating the human benefits of trees in the urban environment. We seek a research assistant with an interest in Virtual Reality to create realistic fly-through experiences in urban environments across a range of socioeconomic and climate conditions in CA using 3D point cloud data from airborne Light Detection and Ranging (LiDAR). Desired qualifications: working knowledge of Python, JavaScript, or 3D game programming in Unity or similar. Interest in VR, GIS, remote sensing and urban forestry are a plus, but not required. Applicants should include a cover letter and resume and email to Dr. G. Andrew Fricker (africker@calpoly.edu), and Dr. Jonathan Ventura (jventu09@calpoly.edu).

Videographer Opportunity at Big Brothers Big Sisters

A note from Madi Walker:

My name is Madi Walker, and I am an AmeriCorps VIP Member at Big Brothers Big Sisters of San Luis Obispo County, a local non-profit in the area! I am reaching out to you with an opportunity for students in ISLA and STS.

In May 2024, we are hosting our annual BIG Event, a fundraising event that raises critical funds and encourages people in the community to become a mentor to an at-risk child in the area. We are currently looking for a Cal Poly student to create a short 4-5 minute film with the guidance of our Development Director. This film will highlight the stories of a few matches in SLO County as a way to show the power of mentorship and encourage more community engagement with our organization that we can share at the BIG Event.
