Student Leadership Institute Schedule
Friday, October 18, 2019*

*Check-in will be available all day at a table outside UU 220 and outside the Center for Leadership in the UU.

The Student Leadership Institute is a come as you can free student leadership conference. Learn tools to activate your leadership, apply the CPX data and create lasting change on Cal Poly’s campus! All student focused sessions of CPX’s Strategic Diversity Leadership Institute are incorporated into SLI and supplemented by additional breakout sessions, student keynote speakers, breakfast and lunch, and more.

8:30am – 10:00am – Breakout Sessions 1

- Activating Your Leadership for the Greater Good in UU 220 partnership with the CPX Strategic Diversity Leadership Institute

10:10 – 11:00 am: Welcome and Opening Student Keynotes in UU 220 with breakfast

- Join us for breakfast and keynote (TedTalk style) student speakers Joey Stephens, Lindsey Shepard, Kenia Alba, Isaiah Gloriani, Sophie Moore, Samantha Gonzalez, Tonya Tang from InterHousing Council, the Cross Cultural Centers, the Center for Leadership, New Student and Transition Programs, and Fraternity and Sorority Life!

11:10 am – 12:00 pm: Breakout Sessions 2

- Storytelling with Integrity in UU 219 with Kari Howell & Jacob Campbell
  - This session will encourage students to lead with integrity and inclusivity when engaging with and communicating about data while challenging the idea of objectivity in data-driven decisions.

- Leading with your Assets: Asset-Based Strategies for Creating Inclusive Space in UU 216 with Kara Samaniego & Shelby Lynne
  - Learn how to leverage and articulate the value of your lived experiences through asset-based frameworks.

- Cross-Collaboration: How Utilizing Multiple Groups can Lead to a Successful Event in UU 218 with Austin McLellan
  - Learn how anyone affiliated with an on-campus organization can bring multiple groups together to execute an event that’s beneficial to students and everyone involved.

- Leadership + Decision Making = Success in San Luis Lounge in the UU with Dr. Marni Goldenberg
  - There are several ways to make decisions.... come learn about various decision making models and apply them to a leadership case study. Be prepared to be interactive and "learn by deciding".

12:10 – 1:00 pm: Breakout Sessions 3 with Lunch is served in these breakout sessions

- Overcoming Apathy, When No One Seems to Care in UU 219 with Sophie Moore, Michael Harris, & John Lindberg
  - Apathetic teams are unproductive teams. This session will offer strategies for leaders to combat apathy both among the leadership and members of a group.

- Unmasking Microaggressions in Leadership in UU 216 with Kari Mansager
  - Learn what microaggressions are, how they harm, and how you can avoid committing microaggressions.
Leading Your Authentic Life in UU 218 with Dr. Joy Pedersen
- Many of us become disconnected from our true selves in the modern world. Our socialization, distractions, and fears can draw us out of alignment. Learning to identify our True North helps us be our authentic selves.

Be Our Guest in San Luis Lounge in the UU with Chip Neuenschwander
- A former Disney University Trainer shares a behind-the-scenes look at how to create a culture of making guests happy. Join us for a magical experience!

Marketing 101 in Bldg 52 Room E22 (the Center for Service in Action) with Annika Furr
- From flyers to social media and everything in between, learn how to effectively market for small or large-scale events to reach maximum attendance!

1:10 – 2:30pm: Afternoon Keynote

Creating An Everyday Culture of Inclusion in the MAC (Multi-Activity Center behind the Recreation Center) with Dr. Damon A. Williams
- In partnership with the CPX Strategic Diversity Leadership Institute, this afternoon plenary session will provide strategies for improving the campus climate at Cal Poly through a panel discussion.

3:10 – 4:00 (30) pm: Breakout Sessions 4

Disability Justice 101 in UU 219 with John Lee
- Disability rights movement history, leaders within the field of disability justice, and best practices for radical accessibility and inclusivity

Exploring Your Values in Leadership & Career in UU 216 with Krista Burke & Hannah Steen
- Join Career Services to explore how your values influence the ways you lead and can help you navigate your career journey.

Student Leadership as a Model of Community Mobilization in UU 218 with Meg Stuart & Jennifer MacMartin
- Speakers will utilize a Gender & Power-Based Violence primary prevention framework to facilitate a workshop on community mobilization efforts – from mental health, to restorative justice, and beyond.

Strategies for Actively Demonstrating White Ally-ship in UU 220 with the CPX Strategic Diversity Leadership Institute

4:10 – 5:00pm: Closing in the UU Plaza
- Join us for a raffle (better prizes for the more sessions you attend), tie-die (creating a #thisiswhataleaderlookslike t-shirt that is unique to your leadership style), boothing by our SLI committee offices to learn about how you can continue your leadership journey in their offices, ice cream, and more.