

CAMPARE

PERFORM PAID ASTRONOMY RESEARCH ACROSS
THE NATION AS AN UNDERGRADUATE!

WHAT IS IT?

Students will work for 8-10 weeks in the summer with scientists at one of 14-world-class research institutions on projects spanning the fields of astronomy, planetary & space science, astrobiology, physics, and astronomy education & public outreach.

*Only applicants from CAMPARE-associated institutions (e.g. Cal Poly SLO) are invited to apply, so the applicant pool will be smaller than other summer research opportunities!

WHERE IS THE RESEARCH?

As a CAMPARE researcher, you could perform research at universities like MIT, UC Berkeley, Stanford, and many more; OR at research sites like the SETI Institute or Carnegie Observatories.
